Police hunt for serial scammer

By Paul Crompton

DISTRACTION burglars have targeted a Dorchester pensioner for a second time after gaining access to her home by pretending to be workmen.

An e-fit image of one of the men responsible for the early evening incident at the home along Maud Road has now been released.

The thieves demanded money from the pensioner after gaining access by falsely insisting they needed to repair a gas leak in the woman's house.

The frail 82 year-old was left traumatised by the two men who had targeted the woman a year before, when YOUNG entrepreneur Jamie Isaacs, 17, has lived in Beaminster since the age of five having moved to the town from London.

Having discovered a love for the technical side of the arts during his childhood theatre training Jamie setup his own company after leaving school.

DJAY Southwest now provides professional sound and lighting for live music and theatre across the West Country and further afield.

When not providing the technical support Jamie can often be found on the stage himself, most recently as the villain in the Bridport Pantomime and as the leading man in Bridport Musical Theatre Company's production of "Anything Goes".

Jamie has also received international exposure this month with a small speaking role in the film "Tamara Drewe".

Away from performing Jamie also enjoys kayaking and exploring the Dorset countryside.

WHAT do you like most about West Dorset?

With my main interests being in theatre and music, there is a large wealth of music events and community productions to keep me occupied in my spare time.

WHAT prompted you to start your own business at such a young age?

It's a good excuse to have a hole punch.

WHAT advice would you give to other young businessmen?

I find a good team is one of the most important things you can have. Another thing that we take seriously is our branding – learning graphic design has been really useful both at work and for the amateur organisations I'm involved with.

WHAT are the best shows you have worked on with DJAY?

Some of the main highlights of my year have been rigging for the James Taylor Quartet and working with Howe Gelbe, an alternative country artist – he was very cool. But my favourite gig this year would have to be working on tour with Show of Hands as their lighting engineer.

WHAT are your earliest memories of performing?

One of my memories of performing when I was young was in the Bridport Operatic's production of the King and I, which was the first show I took part in, in Bridport.

WHAT is the best show you have appeared in?

One of the best shows I performed in was one of my first professional roles with Ellen Kent Opera International when I was part of the child chorus in Turandot and Tosca at the Bournemouth Pavilion.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

WHAT would be your dream acting role?

I couldn't answer that until I've acted it.

HOW did you land the part in Tamara Drewe?

I had a phone call from a friend who was hosting the audition; he invited me to come along. I performed to camera and that was later sent to Pinewood for casting. The second assistant director then called me to offer me the role.

WHAT did you make of your appearance in the film?

To be honest I didn't even know if I was going to be in it! I knew that having gone through the audition process and being on set didn't necessarily mean I'd be in the final edit, but I must admit that I was quite relieved to see myself on the screen.

WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party and why?

I'd really love to invite John Martyn to a dinner party but I know he would be a nightmare. Liam Neeson and my girlfriend.

WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?

I don't read very often but I'm currently half way through Sogyal Rinpoche's book "The Tibetan Book of Living and Dying". Recently the DJAY team set up a ridiculously large surround sound system to rewatch the awesome Gladiator. In the office I listen to music from lots of different formats – we love Spotify for instance – one of my current favourites is Imogen Heap.

New look Jaspers reopens

A VILLAGE hair salon is bucking the trend after reopening following a major refurbishment.

Jaspers Hairdressers in Piddletrenthide held a reopening ceremony this week following a total refurbishment.

Miss Dorset, Alice Hall, and Miss Weymouth Lifeboat, Danielle De-Bear, were invited to take part in the official reopening of the new look hair and beauty salon among other special guests, including local councillors, businessmen and long standing clients.

West Dorset District Councillor Nicki Barker said: "It is splendid to see this business not just reopening, but reopening to offer an even better service.

"In an era when so many villages are struggling to keep their businesses, and there is little in the way of local work, Piddletrenthide is a shining example on how a village can still be a vibrant working community.

munity.

"It is not a big village, but the high quality of all its enterprises draws custom in from a wide area.

"This hairdressers is a rare enterprise for any small village to possess and its high reputation and easy parking makes it a facility locals from well beyond Piddletrenthide use and treasure."

Staff at the salon have decided to raise money for the Dorset RNLI during the next month, which is Danielle's chosen charity.

Jaspers Hairdressers has been open for more than 25 years and Andy and Nicola Foot, who bought the salon in 2000, decided to modernise and increase the size of the salon to allow a more personal feel.

It is now a two storey salon with a colour and beauty room upstairs and a spacious salon downstairs.

Jaspers is well supported by the local community and employs seven members of staff including manager Tracy Baker, senior stylists Steph Barriball, Ruth Martin and Caroline Kellaway, junior stylist Emma Dunham, third apprentice Steph Ring and part time beautician/nail technician Jessica Winsper.

Both Danielle and Alice received a manicure and makeover and during the reopening they also showcased styling and colouring designed by Emma Dunham and Steph Ring.

Alice said: "I love my new hair colour. It's a big change for me and I'm so pleased with the result.

"The new salon is lovely and the staff are so friendly and helpful. I wish you all good luck in the future."

Danielle added: "The new salon looks amazing and makes such a big difference from the old salon. It's now so spacious and stylish.

"I think it reflects just how professional and talented the staff really are. My hair looks great."

STAFF at Jaspers Hairdressers celebrate its reopening with Miss Dorset, Alice Hall and Miss Weymouth Lifeboat, Danielle De-Bear

Pensioner targeted twice by burglars

they had over-charged her for gardening work.

Police Constable Kristy Heron, of Dorchester police, said: "The two men arrived in a white transit van, with garden waste hanging out of the vehicle.

"They knocked on the door and told the 82-year-old woman that she had a gas leak that they needed to repair from inside the property

"The men were inside the house for around 30 minutes until the victim realised that these men had over-charged her for some garden work during the previous year.

"The woman asked the men to leave. They demanded £100, but the victim refused and they left empty-handed."

The men are white and in their thirties. One of the men was wearing a high visibility jacket. The other man was tanned and wearing a dark-coloured jacket.

The incident happened at around 6pm on Thursday, August 12h.

PC Heron said: "Following further enquiries, I am now able to release an e-fit of the man wearing the high visibility jacket.

"I am appealing for anyone who recognises this man to contact me as soon as possible.

"This was a very distressing incident for the victim and I am determined to bring the offenders to justice."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police on 01305 222222 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111 where mobile phone tariffs may apply.

Charity secures community support at county show

LOCAL charity Diverse Abilities Plus (formerly Dorset Scope) raised its profile among members of the local community during the Dorset County Show which took place at Dorchester Showground.

The charity also raised £150 in a raffle which included prizes donated by local businesses including a sailing lesson for two - donated by the Watersports Academy in Sandbanks - a gas BBQ and a bespoke silver pendant from Funky Fingers Jewellery.

The winning raffle tickets were drawn by Tiger-Lily Lawford who was attending the show on Sunday afternoon.

Exhibiting there for the first time, Diverse Abilities Plus used the opportunity to promote its specialist services and to advise many families on how they could benefit.

Representatives also highlighted how members of the community can support the charity through participation in fundraising initiatives, and promoted volunteering and employment opportunities available with the organisation.

Diverse Abilities Plus is the only local charity that provides a range of support and education services for children and adults with disabilities across Dorset.

Mark Powell, director of operations said: "The community turned out in force at the weekend and this ensured that the show as a huge success for the organisers and exhibitors."

"We were delighted with the interest our presence at the show generated and that the team was able to inform so many local people of how we make a difference in the community."

For more information or to contact Diverse Abilities Plus please call 01202 718266 or visit www.diverseabilitiesplus.org.uk

Speed camera rethink?

CENTRAL government spending cuts could force speed cameras to be scrapped across West Dorset after a comprehensive review of all operations conducted by Dorset Road Safe has decided to reduce the number of fixed camera sites.

However, Dorset Road Safe is looking to increase mobile camera operations which will allow for greater flexibility in targeting areas with high collision rates and also in working with communities whose lives are impacted by speeding vehicles.

As a result of the reduction in funding for road safety recently announced by central government, it has been necessary for Dorset County Council to review their funding of Dorset Road Safe. The authorities has committed to supporting the continuation of Dorset Road Safe and have dedicated funds available through the Local Transport Plan.

● An independent survey carried out in April 2010 found that 70 per cent of Dorset's residents support the use of safety cameras as a way of reducing collisions on the county's roads.

■ The children of last year's 5CW with their own copies of the Travelling Book

The travelling book finds its way home

IN February of this year, a very special book began its long journey around the world.

The idea of children from class 5CW at Dorchester Middle School, "The Travelling Book" was a way for the children to investigate other cultures and communities across the globe.

A parent of one of the children approached Kris Hallett from Dorset Community Action who recognised that this could be an exciting, if not challenging, project which could be showcased at the 2010 One World Festival – and so the journey began.

Using personal contacts, the "Travelling Book" left Dorchester Middle School on Friday, February 11th on its way to Holland and its first stop.

From there it continued on to the United States, Fiji, Australia, Thailand and Bangladesh before returning safely to England on July 31st. Additional pages were also received via volunteers from the Grace Secondary School in the Sudan, the United Arab Emirates, and Palestine.

By Anita Harries

And the completed book is a wonderful record of all these countries have to offer as seen through the eyes of their schoolchildren.

This incredible story of our world and its differing cultures has been put together in a book beautifully printed by Richard Budd and funded by a Grassroots Grant applied for by Khalique Miah and the Speak Easy Group.

And thanks to a communication link set up by Dorset Community Action, the children were able to watch the progress of the book as it travelled the globe.

A very excited class of the children at Dorchester Middle School who had instigated the project had their first view of the book as they opened it with their teacher Mrs White, watched by Kris Hallett, Khalique Miah, and headmaster Paul Chadwick.

They were able to view first hand the information added to the book by schoolchildren across the world, with wonderful illustrations and commentary written in foreign languages.

And each child in the class received their very own printed copy of the book, hot off the press that very day.

It has been cleverly reproduced exactly as it was received, complete with slight wear and tear, damp, and photographic damage. But this serves only to enhance the book and its incredible journey.

credible journey.

They also held a question and answer session with Khalique about life in his home country of Bangladesh. They wanted to know about everything from fighting to television, technology, and the country's rivers and mountains.

Khalique also showed them how to count to ten in Bangladeshi and recited part of the alphabet in his native tongue. There was even time to watch a short video of Khalique and his children opening the book when it first arrived back in this country.

If any other schools would like to set up their very own travelling book, information about the project can be obtained by logging on to www.dorsetcommunityaction.org.uk/travelling-book. Any queries can be answered by contacting info@dorsetcommunityaction.org.uk.

As part of Inside Out 2010, the Nofit State Circus brought its Parklife project to Maumbury Rings in Dorchester.

During the last three years the Nofit State Circus has established itself as the UK's leading contemporary circus company. The vision, dedication, and incredibly hard work of a core team have turned a relatively small and unknown organisation into an internationally acclaimed success.

Funded by the Arts Council of Wales, it now produces professional touring productions at all scales, along with a wide range of community, training and education projects for people of all ages.

Working in collaboration with Dorchester Arts and Activate, Nofit delivered an amazing Parklife project in the county town.

This is an exciting outdoor circus initiative, where they take the tent off the circus and invite the public to join in an exploration and celebration of the secret life of parks.

As well as the spectacular aerial circus playground, there was an Open House programme of taster sessions, rehearsals and performances, working with local creative groups, schools, and members of the public.

Many took the opportunity to watch the performers training, and take part in activities such as juggling, walking the tightrope, acrobatics and trying the trapeze. And there was also a Dorchester's got Talent spot, where those who had a talent they would like to share joined an informal session with the chance to take a spot in the preshow or the final performance.

There was no shortage of local groups eager to take part in workshops and rehearsals. The Distinction Cheerleaders, the A level performing arts students from the Thomas Hardy School, Dorchester Taekwondo, the Second Edition Majorettes from Portland and the superb free runners from Weymouth were just some of the organisations keen to take part in the final performance, all with their own particular talents and all hoping to make the big stage.

Hundreds of families braved the chilly weather to witness the NoFit State Circus' spectacular show at the end of a week of workshops and rehearsals.

Pyrotechnics, aerial acrobatics, trampolinists and tightrope walkers had the crowds cheering. A nice touch to the evening of circus magic was the inclusion of many local community groups who had taken part in the workshops and rehearsals throughout the week.

The Distinction Cheerleaders, the Juno Belly Dancers, and the Portrait Youth Dance Group looked perfectly at home on the huge circular stage.

The YMCA Gymnastics Club and the free runners from Train Hard were excellent, as were those brave locals who took part in the fire dance. These included West Dorset District Council's Emma Scott and nine year old Liam Legg, the youngest fire twirler and a taekwondo black belt.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS - ROTARY CLUB NEWS - ROTARY CLUB NEWS

■ ROTARY Clubs members enjoy an interesting talk from Helen Basson from the Dorset Blind Association

Interesting talk for members

HELEN Basson was invited to give a talk to members of the Rotary Club of Dorchester about her work with the Dorset Blind Association.

Helen gave a particularly interesting insight into the work of the charity which helps support more than 6,500 visually impaired people in Dorset, whether they are wishing to remain living independently at home or are in care.

The charity has a core membership of 10 full and part-time staff, supported by more than 300 volunteers and is always looking for more help.

Rotarian Patrick Jefferies gave a vote of thanks and said that the club would do all that it could to help establish an information point at Dorchester hospital or to provide some form of volunteer work to help make life easier for those who are visually impaired.

Aid pours in for flood victims

MORE than 200 water survival boxes were in the first wave of support sent directly to Rotary Clubs in the Pakistan regions affected by the recent floods from the Dorchester branches.

A second consignment of 200 boxes were sent as donations flooded in and a further 160 are due to go in future.

On the first two days that Rotarians were on the street, a total of £1,374 was collected in South Street and this paid for nine more water-survival boxes to be sent to families that survived the disaster but urgently need safe clean water.

The total for the whole campaign in Dorchester was over £3,000 and all the money will go to where it is needed with Rotarians in the Pakistan regions handing out the boxes to those in need.

A spokesperson for the Rotary Club of Dorchester said: "Once again, thanks must go to the people of Dorchester for the very generous donations given to this disaster appeal.

"It is a very humbling experience and one that the Rotarians of Dorchester are proud to be associated with."

■ DORCHESTER Rotarian Andrew Jones has raised £3,000 for Help for Heroes and other charities by jumping out of a plane.

Andrew jumped from 13,000ft to complete his sponsored skydive.

At only 33-years-old, he is the youngest Dorchester Rotary Club member.

The total sum of £3,000 will be divided among Help for Heroes and other Rotary Club charities.

Getting up close at town house

■ VISITORS enjoy the opportunity to look inside the Roman Town house

BEHIND County Hall in Dorchester lies one of the county town's most amazing dwellings, the Roman Town House.

A Grade I listed building and a Scheduled Ancient Monument, this incredible structure is available for all to see, free of charge, all year round.

Cared for by Dorset County Council, interpretation at the site was greatly improved by a "Your Heritage" grant in 2008, allowing visitors enhanced enjoyment and understanding of this historic location.

Part of the house has been enclosed by a glass walled building to protect, among other things, the marvellous decorative mosaic which can be seen on the floor.

However, on five afternoons this summer, the Roman Town House has thrown open its doors to give visitors a special opportunity to get up close to the unique mosaic floors normally only visible from the outside.

by Anita Harries

The doors were opened on Wednesday afternoons in August, and again on September 15th as part of Dorset's Architectural Heritage Week creating a further chance to see more of the county's rich architectural history first hand.

Sarah Harbige, Roman Town House Officer, said: "We have been overwhelmed by the number of people who took advantage of this opportunity.

"Almost 400 people came through the doors, and we need to thank them for being very careful where they placed their feet.

"We hope we will be able to offer the public similar occasions next year."

"Visitors were able to explore the inside of the building, take a closer look at the mosaics, look deep into the hypocaust, and learn more about the building from the volunteers on duty.

Hardy Players star in new film

MEMBERS of one of Dorchester's most famous drama groups have starred in the latest film from Dorset-based director Julian Fellowes.

Starring Dame Maggie Smith and Timothy Spall, "From Time to Time" was filmed against the splendid backdrop of Athelhampton House and has already picked up awards at several major film festivals.

It tells the story of Tolly Oldknow, a 13-year-old boy who is sent to live with his grandmother in the family home of Green Knowe during December 1944, just as the Second World War is coming to an end.

Athelhampton House is perfect as Green Knowe and can be deemed one of the main characters in the film.

It drifts between the 1940s and the Regency period over 200-years earlier, as Tolly explores the old house and discovers his ancestors through a series of ghostly apparitions.

Dame Maggie Smith is superb as Linnet Old-

MEMBERS of the New Hardy Players, flanked by their chairman Andy Worth and Patrick Cook owner of Athelhampton House, attend a screening of From Time to Time know, the lady of the manor, who seems perfectly at home in the magnificent surroundings of Athelhampton. Timothy Spall plays her loyal groundsman Fred Boggis, while the role of Tolly is taken by the perhaps not so well known, but nonetheless incredibly competent, Axel Etel.

Just as important to the making of any film are the countless extras needed to bring the film to life. And no less than nine members of Dorchester's much acclaimed New Hardy Players took part, including Devina the film.

"They are committed, intelligent, and talented, and that means that the supporting players in the scenes are as much part of it as the principals. The results can be judged on screen.

"I was delighted with all of them and would definitely use them again should the chance arise."

Special screenings of the film have been held at Athelhampton House, courtesy of its owners Patrick and Andrea Cook.

The House boasts a modern cinema in the attic, and one of the performances was attended by several of the New Hardy Players, including several of those appear in the film.

Their chairman, Andy Worth, said: "This was an unique opportunity to enjoy a brilliant film right where it was made. Patrick has created a great facility for both hi tech presentation and as a 77 seat cinema.

"The whole evening, from start to finish, was thoroughly enjoyable."

Charity talk for hospital

A TALK is due to be held in aid of a Dorset County Hospital based charity which looks to enhancing the environment by working directly with patients and staff on projects promoting wellbeing.

Charitable organisation "Arts in Hospital has secured the help of Dr Michael O'Hanlon, the Director of the Pitt Rivers Museum in Oxford, to give a talk on "The A-Z of the Pitt Rivers Museum".

The museum was founded in 1884 when Lt General Pitt-Rivers, an influential figure in the development of archaeology and evolutionary anthropology, gave his collection to Oxford University.

The talk will give a fascinating insight into both the history of the museum and the recent capital developments including a £8million new extension opened in 2007 and the redevelopment of its entrance.

Dr O'Hanlon read History at Cambridge and did a Ph.D in Social Anthropology at University College London.

He was Curator of the Ethnography Department at the British Museum before becoming the Director of the Pitt Rivers Museum in 1998.

He is also the author and editor of several books on Social Anthropology.

The talk will be on Friday, October 1st at 6.30pm at the Tithe Barn, Hinton St Mary, Sturminster Newton by kind permission of Mr and Mrs Anthony Pitt-Rivers.

Tickets are £20 and guests will be offered wine and canapés.

For tickets please contact Jackie Henville (01305) 255144.

THE TOWN MILL BAKERY
HANDMADE BREAD

This is Jorge, our new baker. He's French and therefore we are going to do a lot of things the French way. On Monday 11th October at 10.00am to 1.00pm Jorge will be giving a demonstration of his style of baking by making Pain de Campagne for an audience of 30 invited guests in Lyme Regis.

Pain de Campagne ("country bread") is typically a large round loaf. For centuries, French villages had communal ovens where the townsfolk would bring their dough to be baked, and the miches weighed as much as twelve pounds. Such large loaves would feed a family for days or even weeks.

If you would like to be in the audience. One ticket per person on a first come first served basis

THE Durnovaria Silver Band perform in the Borough Gardens

Dorchester's own last night of the proms

THE county town will be hosting its very own last night of the proms later this month.

For those who enjoy a good old fashioned sing song the Corn Exchange in Dorchester is the place to be on Thursday, September 30th at 7.30pm.

Dorchester's very own last night of the proms promises an evening of traditional music, with all the festivity that accompanies such an occasion.

The Durnovaria Silver Band, under their musical director Elizabeth Carter, and a new group of female voices, Dulcima, directed by Linda Brown, will be gracing the stage and encouraging a great deal of audience participation.

So if it's time to give those rusty vocal chords an airing or get some wind into those lungs and extend a vastly under-exercised diaphragm, this is the place to be.

Tickets for the event are only £6, half price to those under 16. Refreshments will be available, and there will also be a bar and a raffle.

By Anita Harries

As well as having a great time waving those Union Jacks and singing your hearts out, you will be helping the Rotary Club of Dorchester raise money for its important international work.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening will be Dr Keith Barnard-Jones, former Portland GP and now an influential figure on the Rotary International scene and an expert on the Polio Eradication programme.

One of the aims of Rotary International is to eliminate polio from across the world. This devastatingly infectious disease now remains in only four countries, but they are hard to reach and so the fight must go on until this terrible illness has been removed from every corner of the globe.

Tickets for the last night of the proms can be purchased from Nicoll World Travel, the Tourist Information Centre in Dorchester, or by ringing (01305) 751979.

Female choir in concert

AN all female choir will be giving a concert at the United Reformed Church, Dorchester.

Il Cantante are a dynamic 12-piece female choir established in 2008 under the musical direction of Ed Waldron.

They will be in concert on Saturday, October 2nd at The United Church, Dorchester, where the choir will be performing a wide variety of musical styles and genres.

The concert starts at 7.30pm and tickets are available from Harmony Music, Dorchester on (01305) 260360 or from Rob and Stephanie Frampton on (01305) 267523 priced at £4 each.

Refreshments will be served in the interval.

The evening will also include an Auction of Promises.

Some of the lots going under the hammer include: tea for two at the House of Commons, a diamond ring from Clockhouse Jewellers, dinner for two with Julian and Emma Fellowes, a round of golf for four at Came Down Golf Club, a weekend break in a Grade II Listed farmhouse, drive in a vintage car, a photoshoot, family tickets to local attractions, pet portrait commission with artist Ally Tate, golf lessons and much more.

For further information, contact Rob and Stephanie Frampton on (01305) 267523.

Breast cancer survivors feature in exhibition

AN exhibition of life drawings and sculpture will be open this month entitled Breast Cancer Life.

The exhibition includes the work of Dorset artist Harriet Barber, a breast cancer survivor. Her work features life drawings of breast cancer sufferers through various stages of treatment and recovery.

Harriet was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2008 and experienced herself the low self esteem and lack of confidence many women who undergo treatment for breast cancer face.

Harriet moved from painting landscapes to nudes in 2010 as a way of helping women recovering from cancer to regain some confidence.

More than 30 models have sat for her paintings and drawings, many of which feature in the exhibition.

A sculpture by Greta Berlin of a one breasted woman named "Kate" will also feature in the exhibition, which will take place at Millers Barn, Plush, near Dorchester on Saturday, September 25th and Sunday, September 26th 1pm to 6pm.

Following the launch weekend this month, the exhibition will go on tour around Dorset.

Breast Cancer Life will be at the Poundbury Garden Centre from October 16th to November 7th.

Norfolk story rekindles hopes of saving pub

A PRESSURE group is rekindling their ten-year battle to save Toller Porcorum's derelict pub by urging West Dorset District Council to use their powers and save it from complete ruin.

Community Alert on Pubs & Hotels members are calling on WDDC to help re-open The Old Swan pub despite council claims there is no funding available for such ventures.

British Beer and Pub Association figures show 52 public houses closed each week in 2009.

The latest calls come after the Borough Council of King's Lynn and West Norfolk used the power of the Compulsory Purchase Act to save a now flourishing pub threatened with being turned into residential property.

A compulsory purchase order would seek the owner, Palmers Brewery, to either re-open the pub, which has been deteriorating since closing over 10 years ago, sell it on the open market or to the council.

Threats of using a CPO spurred the Norfolk pub owner to sell the 18th century building for £330,000 to the council, who then sold it to a syndicate of businessmen who re-opened the pub within six months.

CAPH members claim a number of investors are currently willing to step in and save The Old Swan, but are apprehensive until given the green light.

CAPH's John Grantham said: "The Borough Council of King's Lynn and West Norfolk decided to help a pub re-

by Paul Crompton

open after the owner decided to just shut it, so why doesn't West Dorset District Council act to re-open The Old Swan at Toller and stop failing in its duty?

"Exactly the same process could occur in Toller if we had a council that had the courage to truly act in the interests of this village.

"We know of publicans interested in buying and investing in The Old Swan, but there's no point in them emerging till the council declares at last, finally, that it has indeed got the will to act, instead of eking out time with a decade of uttering of 'but only in the last resort'."

A Government Inspector asserted the pub was financially viable and should be re-opened or actively marketed for sale at a hearing in Toller 10 years ago, something a recent WDDC backed report refuted.

Norfolk councillor Mike Tilbury put forward a motion to his council to use its powers to save their pub, situated in the picturesque village of Great Massingham.

Councillor Tilbury said: "Our council resolved a three-step approach, the final step of which was to seek a CPO, but after extensive negotiations - which were not with possible purchasers but with the current owner and his solicitor - he eventually agreed to sell to us, so that we were able to seek and find new owners to restore the pub. I am in no doubt that this only happened because of our resolve to seek, as a last resort, the CPO.

"We produced the weapon from the council's armoury, but achieved our result for the community without having to pull the trigger.

"It sounds like action to help Toller Porcorum's situation has some similarities with Great Massingham. We used our powers to help re-generate a village."

WDDC Leader Robert Gould said: "We have been actively engaged in discussions with the local community and the owner's agents to try and bring The Old Swan back into use.

"As part of this we gave a grant to produce a business plan for a community-run venture.

"The district council simply does not have the funds available to purchase and operate every business which closes in West Dorset, particularly at a time where there is every expectation that there will be major reductions in Central Government support for the council's services."

Voting reform meeting attracts big crowd

A STANDING room only launch event for "Fair Votes For Dorset" has sparked the start of a countywide campaign for voting reform.

Active electoral reformers and members of the voting public gathered for the launch at Bridport's No.10 for a debate about the Alternative Voting system, which could come into place after May's Referendum.

Fair Votes For Dorset Chair Richard Denton-White said: "The combination of enthusiastic voters and committed pro reformers from across the political divide and others who are members of pressure groups such as Weymouth & Portland Transition Towns was inspiring.

"The wind is in the sails of the 'Yes' Vote Campaign here in Dorset and we're all looking forward to crossing swords with those who want to keep our current 'stone age' system in order to retain control of the British political system.

"Reforming the electoral system is fundamental to transforming our politics, and I hope the 15 million Britons, including thousands here in Dorset constituencies, who failed to vote in May's General Election, will finally realise how important it is to make a ballot box choice in next year's referendum."

Invited guest speakers at the launch included Mary Southcott from the Electoral Reform Society and the Labour Campaign For Electoral Reform, Peter Facey the national director of Unlock Democracy and well known Bath campaigner Tim Williamson.

A number of Bridport councillors were present too, including ex Bridport Mayor Councillor Martin Ray and the Liberal Democrats' South Dorset Parliamentary Candidate in this year's General Election and West Dorset District Councillor Ros Kayes.

Fair Votes For Dorset speakers, including Ros Kayes, are addressing a public meeting sponsored by the Liberal Democrats in Poole on Friday, October 8th and a Ringwood event being jointly organised with the local Peace & Justice Group on Thursday, November 18th.

Fair Votes For Dorset core group will be meeting at The George, in Trinity Street, Dorchester at 7:30pm on Wednesday, October 6th.

The group are also planning to run a mock election in Dorchester town centre to demonstrate to the public how the alternative vote will work, if adopted for future elections in next May's Referendum.

Fair Votes For Dorset are urging local schools, sixth forms, chambers of trade, trades councils, church and WI Groups and Dorset-based pressure groups to invite them to meetings.

● If you're interested in joining the 'Yes' Vote Campaign, please phone 01305 826724 or 01308 482276 or 01305 815965 or email richard@people-first.org.uk

• LighterLife

Every bride and groom wants to look their very best on their wedding day and although there is so much involved in organising a wedding, losing weight certainly comes high on the list.

If the thought of walking down the aisle fills you with dread and you have a weight-loss goal to reach in time for your big day, then LighterLife may be the answer.

Fast, safe and effective, LighterLife uses a unique combination of soups, shakes and bars with weekly group meetings designed to help you make lasting changes, set realistic goals and change your mindset when it comes to food. All of which will help you reach your goal in time for your big day and stay on track past your first wedding anniversary!

"One of the many reasons why people choose LighterLife is the speed at which they are able to lose weight," says Celia Manville, the LighterLife Counsellor for Dorchester. As clients are able to see results from week one, this provides them with the motivation to reach their target weight and have the wedding they've always dreamt of."

If you want to sparkle on your big day and make sure you are the centre of attention for all the right reasons why not contact Celia and see what you can achieve? To find out more about LighterLife contact Celia on 07515 699 801 or visit www.lighterlife.com/celiamanville

• Bridge House

BRIDGEHOUSE Beaminster is simply one of the most romantic wedding venues in the south west.

With its ancient beams, inglenook fireplaces and an ambiance that can only come with 700 years of history, the hotel is the perfect backdrop to those couples looking for a more intimate, personal and exclusive wedding day.

The Medieval Lounge, Georgian Dining Room and SunRoom - all licensed for civil ceremonies - offer unique locations for the exchange of vows and, once the formalities are over, a wedding breakfast drawing upon the BridgeHouse' acclaimed reputation for its food, guarantees an occasion that will last in the memory for life.

And with 13 luxury bedrooms including a choice of four posters, all equipped with Egyptian cotton bedlinen, Molton Brown toiletries & gorgeous bathrooms, the BridgeHouse naturally lends itself to a relaxed house party especially when exclusive use of the hotel is both possible and affordable. Every element of the wedding day is personally taken care of from initial planning through to the final details by BridgeHouse owner, Joanna Donovan. Nothing is too much trouble.

So, why not visit or call us on 1308 862200 and discover whether the BridgeHouse Beaminster can work its magic for you.

• How To Dress For A Wedding Reception

Knowing how to dress for a wedding reception is important. If you're dressed too fancy or not fancy enough, you're going to stand out like a sore thumb. That's not the kind of lasting impression you want to leave on your fellow guests or the happy couple. Unless you're the bride or groom, it pays to learn how to dress for a wedding reception before you attend one.

1. Pay attention to the invitation. If it indicates anything like formal dress or black tie, then you know you need to dress to the nines for this event. This means a tuxedo or suit and tie for men and full-length dresses or ball gowns for women.
- 2 Take your cue from the venue of the reception. If the reception is going to be outside, you can usually get away with more casual clothing than if the reception will be in a formal ballroom.
3. Refrain from going too casual, unless the invitation specifically requests jeans and t-shirts. You're still attending a wedding, after all. Even the more laid-back outdoor venues require a degree of decorum. Business casual dress, such as khakis and polo shirts, are about as casual as you should go.
- 4 Avoid colours that are too loud and patterns that are too wild. Either one of these things will make you stand out in a bad way.
5. Keep the weather in mind. You should choose clothing that's appropriate to the season in order to be as comfortable as possible. Be sure to also check the weather report the day of the wedding, so you'll know if you should wear a coat or bring an umbrella.

6. Find out what other guests will be wearing. If you can match your style of dress to that of other people who will be attending the reception, you will rarely go wrong.
7. Ask the bride or groom what you should wear. This method is fool proof. It should also be used as a last resort, unless you're very close with either member of the happy couple. However, if the invitation doesn't give you any clues and the other guests aren't talking to you, then this is your best option.

• Prima Moda Brides of Ilminster

Prima Moda Brides of Ilminster, owned by Jean Pas, is renowned for its choice of unique gowns with the latest designs coming in on a regular basis. Jean and the team take time to listen to clientele and offer help and support to find the gown, which is right – allowing each bride to obtain her individual look. Jean explains "we encourage brides and the bridal party to try different styles with their venue in mind, i.e. beach weddings may require a different style and fabric from a traditional ceremony. This can be a fun experience, especially as we can provide the entire stunning picture by offering to dress the hair when choosing a bespoke tiara and adding and veil and jewellery, which delights our clients." The shop provides a generous amount of space for the gowns to be seen at their full advantage, when being chosen. It has a natural light area, which is important to consider when choosing fabrics and colour to suit you. Also the large mirrored changing rooms are a great advantage to every bride. The window displays are changed regularly as Jean understands how important window-shopping is and she has had many complimentary comments on how beautifully her stunning gowns are displayed. Prima Moda Brides works on a mainly appointment system but all brides are made to feel welcome and special at any time. Every bride would find Prima Moda well worth the visit to find the perfect dress for the perfect day and Jean and the team look forward to seeing you.

Fashion show for students' Kenyan dream

■ READY for a night on the town

ADORCHESTER salon has been raising funds to help send four students to Kenya.

New Reflections has adopted Camps International as their charity and last week owner Alison Courtney held a fundraising hair and fashion show.

Camps International gives students the opportunity to go to Kenya for four weeks, where they gain first hand experience of the day to day life of people from different cultures.

The students become involved in teamwork operations to build community projects such as libraries and schoolrooms, paint classrooms, construct nature reserve facilities, and teach children.

They are expected to work hard and learn cultural awareness, team management, and new skills.

Mrs Courtney put together the Evolve Charity Hair and Fashion Show to help raise funds for four sixth form students from the Thomas Hardy

By Anita Harries

School in Dorchester who are off to Kenya next year.

Rachel Foad, Jess True, Rebecca Christian-Drage and Sarah El Kanoui are looking forward to their forthcoming trip and helping to improve the living conditions and educational standards of local Kenyan communities, as well as helping promote wildlife conservation projects.

The Evolve fashion event was held at the Corn Exchange in Dorchester. Opening with musical entertainment from The Vending Machine Repairmen and a dance routine from Streetdance, the young ladies and gentleman who paraded the catwalk did a wonderful job.

With hair and beauty done to perfection by the New Reflections team, there was everything on show from casual day wear to prom dresses from Fab Frocks of Westbourne.

Both New Look and Dorchester's newest clothes shop, Mode, generously gave outfits, carried off beautifully by the models. Compere for the evening Barry White provided the comical quips and the outfit from Oxfam, there was an amazing dance display by Nick Jury and Emma Tarrant from the Dance Crazy Team, and the incredibly popular Jigsaw provided the musical finale.

Local businesses donated prizes for the raffle and sponsorship to help send the girls to Kenya.

■ DRESSED for Prom Night by Fab Frocks

Here for anyone affected by Breast Cancer
October is national Breast Cancer Awareness Month
20% of the whole feature will be going to the charity

Do your bit by staging 'Pink Friday' at work

EVERY year nearly 46,000 people receive the devastating news that they have breast cancer. Dealing with this diagnosis can be a confusing, lonely and frightening time not only for the person diagnosed, but for their partner, family and friends. Breast Cancer Care wants to be there for every single one of them.

One way to support the campaign is to hold a "PINK FRIDAY" at your place of work during October - the ideal way to ease into the weekend early by organising a fun activity at work, school or at home. Anything goes as long as it's pink and gives you that 'Friday feeling'.

Breast Cancer Care is encouraging people nationwide to celebrate the most relaxed day of the working week throughout October, Breast Cancer Awareness Month, by taking part in the charity's "PINK FRIDAYS" fundraising campaign, to support the 46,000 people who are diagnosed with breast cancer every year in the UK.

Getting involved with "PINK FRIDAYS" is easy to do and can include anything from a tea break in the office with pink food and drinks, to wearing something pink to your morning meetings.

Why not...

- ◆ Get rifling through that fancy dress box - go to school, college or work dressed in a pink wig, hat or feather boa - or even all three!

- ◆ Host a pink pamper night for the girls (and boys!) at your home - try pink make-up, manicures or face masks

- ◆ Bake some pink cupcakes and sell them to your friends or colleagues - for a really simple recipe go to www.breastcancercare.org.uk/pinkfridays.

- ◆ Encourage your work colleagues to come into work wearing pink and charge them a small fee.

Breast Cancer Care Ambassador, Lisa Snowdon, said: "I've been an ambassador for Breast Cancer Care for five years now and I always look forward to October. It's a chance to get all my friends and family together, have fun and make a real difference. Nearly 4,000 people will be diagnosed with breast cancer this October alone.

By holding a "PINK FRIDAY" party, however small, you will help to ensure Breast Cancer Care can be there for each and every one of them. I'm going to see if I can organise one in the office this year - it's about time they donned some silly pink outfits!"

Please note: 20 per cent of the advertising revenue from this feature is being donated to Cancer Research UK.

■ THE Lyme Regis branch of Cancer Research UK raised £360 at a soup and sweet lunch at the Woodmead Halls on Saturday. They served about 50 lunches with funds being boosted by a raffle and donations. The branch has a busy programme of events for the rest of the year, including a special "Lyme Goes Pink" day for Breast Cancer Month on Saturday, October 16th, a wine and cheese party in November and a festive market in December. Branch members who helped at the soup and sweet lunch are pictured above. Back row (from the left) chairman Philip Evans, Christine Evans and John Evans. Creature Comforts Grooming Salon CREATURE Comforts moves with the seasons, Do You? Look no further. Keep that fresh, clean summer feeling when greeted by your best four legged friend. Just because the summer has gone, doesn't mean the wet, damp smell of your dog's coat has to return too.

Autumn usually brings a lot of rain with it.... so instead of waiting till next summer to give your dog's coat a trim or remove matts and tangles. Book a clip, a nice fragranced bath, completed with a blow dry and nails trimmed. Keep your pet's coat and skin clean and parasite free to avoid unnecessary skin problems. If left untreated hair between the toes can develop into stone like knots which can cause lameness, dirty damp coats can result in wet eczema on the skin. We offer a discount for first time customers, a bespoke service to suit your request and advice on which grooming tools to maintain your dog's coat. Delicious dining inside and out NAPPER'S Mite is a fully licensed restaurant coffee shop, it offers a varied menu with daily specials. The garden and courtyard seating is very popular along with the restaurant and bar. New for this summer, Napper's Mite are offering Smoothies and Milk shakes from Eden Delicious. Cream teas are available alternatively Napper's Mite offer a selection cakes for those of you with a sweet tooth.

There are four areas where you can eat with old world charm, two inside, a central section in a covered courtyard and a very pleasant garden out back. The small restaurant/wine bar is excellent for morning coffees right through to a full varied lunch menu. Ideal for families, you can choose from a range of light lunchtime snacks such as baguettes, sandwiches and jacket potatoes. Their hot chocolate with whipped cream and a flake is highly recommended.

Latest review of Napper's Mite on Google maps by Diane says, "We popped in here for lunch whilst on holiday in October. My husband, 16 month old child and I. Service was excellent and I had the best omelette that I have ever had. Highly recommend".

A shop filled from top to bottom with sheer gorgeousness, now open in Poundbury

Proprietor of YARD, Vicki Fenyhough, and her team enjoyed a very successful opening day on Wednesday, September 1st.

YARD is a contemporary clothing and lifestyle boutique full of products to inspire all ages.

Vicki has a superb eye for design and detail. She has been in the fashion industry for over 28 years, gaining invaluable knowledge and experience, which she has put into YARD, handpicking all of the designs that she knows her customers will love.

When you visit YARD you will find carefully thought-out lines, which are effectively merchandised to complement each other. Gorgeous clothing from a selection of brands includes ranges from French Connection, Great Plains, American Vintage, Saint Tropez, Rutzou, Numph and James Jeans. Fresh lines are added weekly. To ensure your unique style, lines are always limited with a maximum of eight garments per design.

A fantastic choice of beautiful accessories, gifts and statement styling pieces for your home are also available from brands new to Dorset, some of which are exclusive to YARD. Embellished hand made cards, hand printed silk cushions and hand-assembled jewellery come from designers And Mary, Barbara Wiggins, Jen Rowland and Avoca.

At YARD you will find treasures you didn't know you needed!

A Fridge full of freshness and flavour

In January 2010, Wayne Garnett celebrated 15 years of owning and running The Fridge Delicatessen in the Tudor Arcade, Dorchester.

In this time he has expanded the range considerably from traditional ham and cheeses, to a much larger range of speciality foods, including most of what Dorset has to offer. For those who have not had the pleasure of shopping in The Fridge it is often likened to an Aladdin's cave crammed full of specialist foods, from local produce sourced right here in Dorset, to a range of exciting and unique produce from around the globe.

When Wayne took the shop over it was named Tudor Hams, and this is still something the shop continues to specialise in. Cooked to a traditional recipe their gammons maintain that dry texture that is typical of a home cooked product. Cheese is probably the biggest area in which they specialise with stock over 100 cheeses from Dorset Blue Vinny, the local unpasteurised famous blue cheese, to Gjetost a Norwegian caramelised mix of goats and cows milk. In addition to this they have at least ten goats cheeses and six sheep's cheeses always available, and around another 50 to order.

Their bread rolls are eight inch torpedo rolls and are baked fresh daily by the Dorset cake company. They are delivered fresh each morning along with their lardy cakes & Danish slabs often still warm to the touch. Their vast range of produce means that they really are blessed with being able to create some fantastic fillings for your rolls. Customers rave about the freshness and diversity of their take away lunch choice.

For over 14 years the fridge have also been selling these fantastic pies from Bridport. With Over 20 flavours their popularity is growing and they make a quick, easy and affordable meal using local ingredients.

Other products on offer include pickles, chutneys, preserves, biscuits, crisps, drinks, and much more quality produce bursting with freshness and flavour. They are also rapidly becoming well known for bespoke hampers. From package full of only Dorset cheeses to one full of only Italian goodies, we can produce a hamper of any size shape or cost to suit the recipients preferred palate.

Visit The Fridge today and you'll be sure to return again and again for tasty treats and everyday essentials.

Afternoon tea at the Old Tea House 'Bring back the traditional English tea time!'

'Relax and make time for tea.'

This is how Country Living Magazine described this tea house built in 1635. Afternoon tea bridges the divide between young and old, everyone from small children to grandparents enjoys teatime.

The Ritz is unbeatable for its high teas and ambience, but our wonderful tea house is right here on your doorstep in Dorchester waiting to embrace and delight you with the most wonderful home made scones and tea time treats.

Due to popular demand the proprietors of the Old Tea House Derek and Debbie Dalley have recently introduced a luxurious B&B room complete with a large lounge, four-poster bed and en-suite. As the building has particular historic value, with a Thomas Hardy connection and tunnels to the old court rooms, it has attracted guests and visitors from far and wide.

One of the favourite customer reviews that Mr and Mrs Dalley received;

"A mix between Faulty Towers and Acorn Antiques with a mixture of fairy dust."

Come along, relax, stay and enjoy one of Dorset's most beautiful and most haunted B&B and tea rooms. A warm welcome awaits you so don't hesitate to revive the great British tradition of high, afternoon and cream teas. Best of British!

The finest Indian cuisine at Rajpoot

RAJPOOT is one of the most exclusive and exciting Indian restaurants, with pleasant surroundings and a longstanding local and international reputation for excellence. They offer a new and exciting culinary experience, all dishes are prepared with absolutely fresh, top quality ingredients which are blended with exotic, fragrant and pungent spices to produce a wider variety of subtle flavours and taste sensations.

The inspiration behind Rajpoot is to bring something new, fresh and vibrant onto the British Indian dining scene. The staff love to make people's day and believe they can do this by getting the food to speak to their customers.

Over the last eight years Rajpoot has grown and branched out too. We have three other restaurants, two in Salisbury - the famous "Anokaa" which is set in the heart of the City and the long established "Asia" restaurant which is on the edge of Salisbury - and "Chutneys" which is in Shaftesbury close to the famous Gold Hill.

With the restaurant Rajpoot have created an ambience that will make you feel relaxed and welcome. Their experienced team from the front of house staff to the award winning chefs will offer you a unique dining experience.

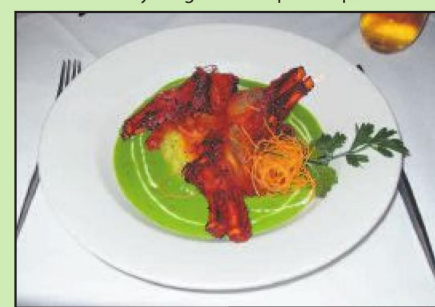

The spices used in their dishes are very different. For starters, they are traditional and authentic. Rajpoot don't mix the spices or believe in playing with their dishes. What they believe in is giving diners good, traditional Indian food in a modern, contemporary environment.

This welcoming and comfortable restaurant is popular all week and it is always wise to book ahead and especially for the Wednesday night 'meal deal' of a two course meal for £7.50 a head. But be sure to treat yourself and your friends and family to a true banquet one evening where the choice, colour and decoration of the platters is breathtaking.

Opening times are: Seven days a week including bank holidays, Monday - Sunday, 12noon - 2.30pm and 5.30pm - 12pm.

Achieve the figure and fitness you deserve!

Fighting the flab and going to the gym can be a real drag - especially if you feel you have to "compete" with the toned bodies that some people display.

Thankfully, it doesn't have to be that way. At Physiques and Shapes any woman - and in our ladies gym it's only women - no matter how old, how fit or whatever her shape, really can feel good, improve her figure and her level of fitness.

New to the gym is a brand new room featuring state of the art Shapemaster equipment. Ladies have reported that these remarkable machines can produce the most amazing results such as the loss of 12 inches after just ten sessions! So how are such remarkable results achieved?

Shapemaster equipment, a redesigned version of toning tables that are suitable for all levels of fitness, and of particular use to mature ladies as there are no cycling or running machines.

Every lady that joins Physiques and Shapes is fully assessed which includes blood pressure monitoring, body mass index, hip to waist ratio, and so on. These measurements are regularly checked so that you can see real improvement. Instructor Tess Taylor, has over fifteen years experience in the field of power-assisted exercise and is Physiques and Shapes Health Club's resident instructor. A full work out on the six different chairs takes only 30 minutes each working a different part of the body. A bonus ladies can currently benefit from an extra 10 minutes of toning on top of this free on their two traditional toning tables. Call Tess today for a quick chat about how these revolutionary exercise systems can help you lose inches, tone up and look fabulous for summer.

Don't forget that you can also find a traditional ladies only gym at the Health Club with all of the essential work out machines and flat screen televisions.

Pepper band comes to Lyme

CELEBRATED Beatles tribute group, Sgt Pepper's Only Dart Board Club Band, are getting in their Yellow Submarine and making their way to Lyme Regis for a show at the Woodmead Halls next month.

Renowned for their storming live shows, the band performs the most complex Beatles songs completely live and without the use of backing tracks. Creating a faithful reproduction of the Fab Four's greatest hits and a selection of well known album tracks, the guys - in their full Pepper regalia - produce a tight and compact sound guaranteed to give a splendid time to all.

The band's story began in 1995, when a show was put together to perform in a special production of 'All You Need Is Love' at the Ecos Amphitheatre, Frome, Somerset. Such was the success of the show that from it emerged an eight piece band with five musicians and three 'front men' vocalists, known as Sgt Pepper's Only Dart Board Band.

This ensemble enjoyed successful gigs round local pubs and clubs performing material from the Sgt Pepper album and songs from the psychedelic era. Audiences were fascinated by this rather unusual Beatles tribute line-up with three vocalists - but the music was good and so was the humour!

After a couple of years the eight piece became five. With all five having a more active full-on role, they soon became an in-demand band and now have a stunning set list that runs from the early 60s numbers right through to the more complex songs of the late 60s.

Since those early heady days (the mid 90s!) the band has gone from strength to strength to become one of the most well known Beatles tribute acts in Europe and has been described as "probably the most entertaining Beatles band in the UK".

This comes from a combination of fab-tastic live music on the one hand and self-deprecating humour and wicked one-liners that flow from their two front men, yes - John and Paul!

With Scouse accents that even fooled regulars at the Cavern Club they are able to mix it with the best an audience can throw at them! The live music is pretty sensational with storming versions of the songs of the Fab Four, many of which - including the later more complex material - were never performed live by the originals.

The band has performed at festivals and events in the USA, throughout Europe and across the UK. Performances include Glastonbury Festival, supporting Robert Plant at the Ashton Court Festival and appearing at National Trust venues.

European tours have taken in shows in Germany, Belgium, the Czech Republic, Austria, Poland and Slovakia. Highlights include headlining at the Homberg Festival in front of several thousand people and performing in Prague's biggest night clubs.

In the UK the band has packed out Liverpool's Cavern Club on several visits to the legendary venue and has also had the honour of performing at the Philharmonic Hall in Liverpool on the 20th anniversary of John Lennon's death in December 2000, with a choir and string section from Liverpool University.

In 2008 the band were invited to perform at The Alabama Shakespeare Festival venue in Montgomery, Alabama in the USA, with all equipment for the show being transported in from Nashville, Tennessee - in itself a no mean accomplishment!

During 2004 and 2005 the band toured venues in the UK performing the final Fab Four album Abbey Road, and during 2007 toured with their version of the 40th anniversary of Sgt Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band, with both tours being a great success. The band pride themselves on not using backing or click tracks during performances and can reproduce an album such as Abbey Road with their usual instrumentation of guitars, keyboards and drums. The emphasis, as always, is to keep the music live!

The Lyme show will also feature a support slot from Canadian outfit Mosquito-B, back in the country for their second UK tour. They played Lyme earlier in the year, back in May, and went down a storm. They'll be promoting their new EP, Killing Mars, which is out on October 1st.

Tickets for the Lyme Regis show on October 2nd are £11 in advance or £13 on the night.

The Woodmead Halls' bar will be open from 7:30pm, with the main part of the venue opening its doors at 8pm. You can purchase tickets in advance by calling Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre on 01297 442138.

An evening of music to warm the soul

IL CANTANTE are a dynamic 12-piece female choir established in 2008 under the musical direction of Ed Waldron.

Saturday, October 2nd October sees the choir perform a concert at The United Church, Dorchester, showcasing a wide variety of musical styles and genres.

The concert starts at 7.30pm and tickets are available from Harmony Music, Dorchester on 01305 260360 or from Rob and Stephanie Frampton on 01305 267523 priced at £4 each.

Refreshments will be served in the interval. The evening will also include an Auction of Promises - under the hammer so far: Tea for 2 at the House of Commons, a diamond ring from Clockhouse Jewellers, dinner for 2 with Julian and Emma Fellowes, round of golf for 4 at Came Down Golf Club, a weekend break in a Grade 2 Listed farmhouse, drive in a vintage car, a photoshoot, family tickets to local attractions, pet portrait commission with artist Ally Tate, golf lessons and much more.

Carrivick Sisters for Arts Centre concert

JUST out of their teens, twin sisters Charlotte and Laura Carrivick have grown up in South Devon playing and writing music together. Their unique style shows their strong bluegrass influences without obscuring their English roots. With tight harmonies that only siblings can achieve, they perform their original songs on guitar, fiddle, mandolin, dobro and clawhammer banjo. They have performed both in the UK and internationally.

The duo will perform at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, September 24th from 8pm. Support comes from another local band, The Paper Shades, bringing delicate guitar work, rich harmonies and heartfelt songs.

Tickets are £10, £9 for members and £5 for concessions and students from the box office on 01308 424204.

Last concert in the season for Whitchurch Purcellians

THE last concert in the Whitchurch Purcellians 2010 season will be on Saturday, September 25th in St Candida's Church, Whitchurch Canoniscom. The concert features the 'Fiddlesticks Duo', two violins - Kokila Gillett and Anya Birchall. The programme will include works by J.S.Bach, Telemann, Bartok, Strauss, Mozart, Haydn and William Lloyd Weber.

Kokila Gillett was at St Candida's on Good Friday as part of the string quartet who played Haydn's 'Seven Last Words'. As soloist and in duo capacity, Kokila has performed live on radio and television, and at many leading venues around the world.

Between 2004 and 2008 Kokila was filmed/recorded, for a documentary TV film "Tchaikovsky" with pianist Pavel Timofeevsky, who has also played at Whitchurch as part of this season's programme. With her Indian heritage, Kokila has also pioneered interactive concerts in Asian venues, combining programmes of western classical music, Ghazal/Quawwali singing, with Kathak dancing.

Solo and chamber recital opportunities have taken Any Birchall all over the world, including France, Austria, Switzerland, Romania, the USA and most recently Zimbabwe and South Africa where she appeared on South African national Radio as part of the Indaba New Music Festival. Anya now enjoys a varied musical career, recent highlights of which include performing Messiaen's Theme et Variations live on BBC radio 3 and playing regularly with orchestras such as the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, European Union Chamber Orchestra, and playing for many West End Shows including Phantom of the Opera.

The concert starts at 7.30 pm and tickets are £7 each. Contact Cynthia Bain for more information on 01297 489629.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

ARTHUR William Edgar O'Shaughnessy was born in London to Irish parents in 1844. He published several collections of poems before his early death at the age of thirty-six. He is best known for his 'Ode', which was set to music in 1912 by Sir Edward Elgar. The opening lines, you may recall, were used by Gene Wilder in the film "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory".

Ode

We are the music-makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams,
Wandering by lone sea-breakers,
And sitting by desolate streams;
World-losers and world-forsakers,
On whom the pale moon gleams:
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world for ever, it seems.

With wonderful deathless ditties
We build up the world's great cities,
And out of a fabulous story
We fashion an empire's glory:
One man with a dream, at pleasure,
Shall go forth and conquer a crown;
And three with a new song's measure
Can trample an empire down.

We, in the ages lying
In the buried past of the earth,
Built Nineveh with our sighing,

And Babel itself with our mirth;
And o'erthrew them with prophesying
To the old of the new world's worth;
For each age is a dream that is dying,
Or one that is coming to birth.

FRANCIS Turner Palgrave paid tribute to O'Shaughnessy in his "Golden Treasury" saying he had a haunting music all his own and rating him second only to Tennyson. Here are two more of Arthur O'Shaughnessy's poems:

A Love Symphony

Along the garden ways just now
I heard the flowers speak;
The white rose told me of your brow,
The red rose of your cheek;
The lily of your bended head,
The bindweed of your hair:
Each looked its loveliest and said
You were more fair.

I went into the wood anon,
And heard the wild birds sing
How sweet you were; they warbled on,
Piped, trilled the self-same thing.
Thrush, blackbird, linnet, without pause,
The burden did repeat,
And still began again because
You were more sweet.

And then I went down to the sea,
And heard it murmuring too,
Part of an ancient mystery,
All made of me and you.
How many a thousand years ago
I loved, and you were sweet-
Longer I could not stay, and so
I fled back to your feet.

Summer Has Come Without the Rose

Has summer come without the rose,
Or left the bird behind?
Is the blue changed above thee,
O world! or am I blind?
Will you change every flower that grows,
Or only change this spot,
Where she who said, I love thee,
Now says, I love thee not?
The skies seemed true above thee,
The rose true on the tree;
The bird seemed true the summer through,
But all proved false to me.

Jazz Warrior plays the Palace

Courtney Pine

MULTI-AWARD winning saxophonist, Courtney Pine, has done more for the profile of modern British jazz than almost any other figure. Some 24 years since his 1986 debut album made the British Top 40, he remains at the forefront of the UK jazz scene, continually pushing at boundaries and reinterpreting the tradition.

For his latest project 'Transition in Tradition', the original Jazz Warrior has assembled a heavyweight musical line-up drawing influences from Africa, the Caribbean, South America and Europe for an exuberant homage to the first great saxophone star Sidney Bechet. The resulting album and live shows have earned him some of the highest critical acclaim of his long and varied career.

With bass clarinet, harmonium and mandolin in the mix, plus an ever evolving groove - from old school swing to Creole stomp - Pine serves up a rich gumbo of jazz flavours.

Courtney Pine, winner of the 2010 Urban Music Award's Living Legend Award, will be joined by Cameron Pierre (Guitar), Robert Fordjour (Drums), Zoe Rahman (Piano), Darren Taylor (Bass) and Omar Puente (Electric Violin).

Don't miss this amazing opportunity to see musicians of this calibre at the Electric Palace in Bridport on Thursday, September 23rd. Final tickets are available for £20 from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901.

Film star makes gala appearance

THIS Friday (September 24th) sees the Gala screening of 'From Time to Time', written and directed by Academy Award Winner Julian Fellowes at The Electric Palace.

The Gala will be held in advance of the film's general release, and will have an introduction from Julian Fellowes, and and Q&A with Fellowes, and one of the films stars, Harriet Walters.

From Time To Time was filmed at the imposing Athelhampton House in Dorset where the original Sleuth was filmed.

In this haunting ghost story Julian Fellowes has created two distinct worlds in times of war, two centuries apart, linked by a single family and the mysterious house in which they live. It is a charming and unique story about life, death and the importance of hope.

This will be Julian Fellowes' second Gala screening at the Electric Palace in Bridport. The Premiere of The Young Victoria was held at the Electric Palace in March 2009 which attracted a full house audience and went on to win an Oscar for Best Costume Design.

Tickets for the Gala screening for From Time

AFFLECK TAKES OVER THE TOWN

THREE-dimensional thriller The Hole ^(12A) explores the fears and secrets of the human mind.

The film follows a family who have fled from their past to find protection and shelter in a supposedly abandoned house. However, the darkness that hides in a mysterious hole in the basement floor is soon to be revealed and outdo all the family's previous misfortunes.

The Hole 3D stars Teri Polo, Chris Massoglia and Haley Bennett.

JULIA Roberts stars as Liz Gilbert, who embarks on a journey of self-discovery in Eat Love Pray ^(PG).

Liz had everything most women dream of – a happy marriage, a house and a successful career – but, whilst trying to get pregnant, Liz realises her life isn't what she wants at all.

After a painful divorce, Liz steps out of her comfort zone and embarks on a once-in-a-lifetime journey around the world. She discovers the true pleasure of food by eating in Italy, the power of prayer in India and, unexpectedly, the happiness of true love in Bali.

Released Friday, September 24th

DISCOVERY TIME | Julia Roberts
stars as Liz Gilbert in Eat Love Pray

BASED on Chuck Hogan's novel Prince of Thieves, action crime thriller The Town ⁽¹⁵⁾ was written and directed by Ben Affleck, who also stars in the film.

The film follows four bank robbers from Charlestown, Massachusetts, as they are pursued by law enforcement.

Affleck plays professional thief Doug MacRay, who falls for bank manager Claire, played by Rebecca Hall, after a dangerous heist. Doug struggles with his new-found relationship whilst evading FBI agent Adam Frawley (Jon Hamm), who is determined to catch Doug and his gang before they rob another bank.

DREWE DELIVERS

ReView by Tom Glover

THE image of Gemma Arterton as Tamara Drewe has been inescapable this summer but despite an eye catching leading lady West Dorset proves to be the star of the film.

'You can't enjoy the countryside without getting a little dirty' is the film's tagline and the thought of bumping into the denim hot pant clad Arterton or a Yetminster barmaid must be a draw for any of the city folk who caught the Tube to their nearest multiple to watch the film.

And to be fair the setting of the rolling hills of West Dorset in the glorious autumn sunshine, coupled with the airbrushing out of every telephone pylon and unsightly building, is enough to make me pack up my bags and book a month in a writers' retreat two miles down the road in Salway Ash.

The film certainly paints Dorset in a good light, even if the younger cast only enforce our stereotypes as country bumpkins.

Bond girl Gemma Arterton takes the leading role in the film as a big city journalist returning to her roots with a new life and a new nose.

In a Hardy-esque love triangle, paying homage to Hardy's 'Far From The Madding Crowd', Tamara is torn between her childhood sweetheart Andy Cobb (Luke Evans) and rock star Ben Sergeant (Dominic Cooper).

Director Stephen Frears has kept true to Posy Simmonds' graphic novel with this film adaptation, admitting himself that some images are re-created exactly as they were drawn, leading to some stunning cinematography.

The all-star cast has some sublime performances with Tamsin Grieg shining as the down-trodden wife Beth Hardiment and Roger Allam showing his versatility to become the love rat you'll love to hate Nicholas Hardiment.

The film lives up to its hype, which is saying something considering the marketing drive it's had this summer, and could prove to be one of the top UK films this year.

IS DAYBREAK BROKEN ALREADY?

X EXIT | Cheryl Cole looks set to quit The X Factor for Simon Cowell's American version of the show.

According to reports, the singer has signed a multimillion pound deal to judge The X Factor USA.

A source close to Cowell said: "I would say it's a good bet that Cheryl is coming to America. It's something that Simon and Cheryl have been discussing for months. You know, it's a very exciting prospect for everyone involved to have Cheryl on board."

"When Cheryl goes to America she will also launch her music career there too. It's the next part of her big plan, she's an incredibly hard worker and she will definitely get a boost by appearing on the X Factor, which is set to be a sure-fire hit."

"The X Factor will be off air in the UK next year and by the time it returns in January 2012, it is highly unlikely that Cheryl will return."

Cowell has also signed up former Pussycat Dolls singer Nicole Scherzinger to join the judging panel following her successful stint on the X Factor auditions.

DAY BROKEN | ITV's new breakfast show has become a ratings flop after 200,000 viewers switched off after just one week. The much-hyped replacement for GMTV fronted by Adrian Chiles and Christine Bleakley is drawing fewer viewers than it's predecessor, embarrassing bosses who stumped up £10million to lure the pair from rivals BBC.

In an effort to improve ratings Christine Bleakley has been told by producers to sit closer to Daybreak co-host Adrian Chiles. Bosses have told Bleakley never to sit more than six inches away from her co-presenter to spice up the chemistry between the pair, whilst Chiles has been asked to smile more to cheer up the ailing breakfast programme.

STRICTLY CHRISTMAS | A Strictly Come Dancing Christmas special is in the works. BBC bosses have noted that many celebrities cannot compete in a show that runs for weeks due to other commitments and so a special one-off is planned with stars such as Sharon Osbourne, Fern Britton, Peter Andre and Gary Lineker tipped to take part.

Whitty's Opens In Axminster

Duncan and Leigh Colvin

A NEW restaurant and coffee shop has recently opened in Axminster. Whitty's Pizzeria and Coffee Stop opened its doors on August 5th and has been busy ever since. This new restaurant is the second venture for husband and wife team, Duncan and Leigh Colvin, who have made such a success of their pub, the Old Inn at Kilmington.

"We wanted to open a restaurant that would compliment the pub and offer an informal atmosphere in Axminster", commented Duncan. "As soon as we saw inside the old Swans building we knew we had found the right site for it, and after a great deal of hard work and negotiations we managed to secure the lease."

The restaurant certainly has a fresh new feel to it, after being redecorated throughout and having almost completely refitted the kitchen, the couple have developed an exciting new venue in town. With Leigh at the helm and a newly recruited team of staff, the restaurant is open from 10am to 10pm with lunch being served from 12 till 2.00pm and dinner from 6.00pm to 9.00pm. Leigh has gone back to her roots as a professional pastry chef and is making a range of cakes and pastries for the coffee shop. Leigh told us, "I am really enjoying showing off my cakes, it is something I have always loved and the challenge of developing the restaurant is fantastic, I think this is a great opportunity for us."

For more information on the restaurant contact them on 01297 631333 or at www.whittys.co.uk

Organ creator returns for choir concert

CREATOR of the impressive new organ at St Michael's Parish Church, Anton Skrabl, will return to Lyme Regis as a soloist in the Slovenian Male Voice Choir.

The choir will be holding a concert at the church on Saturday, October 2nd, which will tie in with the ArtsFest celebrations.

The 18-strong choir are all members of their local Chamber of Trade and Commerce in Slovenia and have performed at many community events, as well as abroad, but this will be their first visit to the UK. They will be staying with local people during their two-day visit to Lyme and then travelling to Greenwich, in London, for a second concert on Sunday night.

The group have been together for nine years and produced three albums, the third of which was released to celebrate their fifth anniversary. Their repertoire includes national songs of the renaissance, baroque and modern numbers.

Editor and publisher of the View From newspapers, Philip Evans, will also be selling his latest book "From Slovenia With Love" at the concert. The book tells the story of how the new Skrabl organ was created and delivered to Lyme Regis, and is available for £5 - £4 of which will go toward the Organ Appeal.

Tickets bought in advance from the Tourist Information Centre cost £8 or are available on the door for £10. Children's tickets cost £5. All proceeds will go towards the Organ Appeal.

Detached 'upside down' house Country views with a modern italian design

VILLA FOR SALE

SPANISH VILLA FOR SALE £235,000

Four bed, three bath, detached with pool and garden. South of Alicante, Nr Murcia airport.

www.villacampoverde.co.uk

GREENHILLS House is an individual detached 'upside down' house designed to take advantage of the site contours with rear gardens accessible from the living accommodation and the bedrooms adjacent to the front garden.

The property was built in the late 1980's to traditional specifications with walls faced in reconstructed stone and a tiled roof.

The house enjoys a sunny south facing rear aspect with secluded gardens. It is quietly tucked away in a select small cul-de-sac of only 9 properties in an attractive semi-rural setting on the edge of the village with country views. It is well away from busy main roads yet just a few minutes walk from the centre of Uplyme.

The accommodation comprises: Ground Floor: entrance hall, stairs to living accommodation, bedroom 1 and ensuite shower room, 2 further bedrooms and bathroom/W.c. First Floor: good sized landing, cloaks/W.c., lounge, dining Room, kitchen and utility. It benefits from double glazing and gas central heating. Outside it has very attractive gardens, garage and Stores.

Viewing is strictly by appointment with the vendor's agents, Martin Diplock Estate Agents & Valuers, 36 Broad Street, Lyme Regis, telephone (01297) 445500.

THIS extremely well presented property, built to a high standard and specification in 2006, offers well planned living space, a diversity of outside space and double garage and parking.

The accommodation briefly comprises entrance hall, cloakroom, extensive sitting/dining room and fully fitted kitchen/breakfast room to the ground floor. On the first floor there are three double bedrooms, two en suites and a family bathroom.

Outside there is a balcony leading from two of the bedrooms, terrace, garden, double garage and parking space. The property is warmed by electric central heating and benefits from double glazing and the reminder of the NHBC certificate.

Internal viewing of this property is essential to appreciate the well proportioned rooms, the high specification and the light and airy atmosphere. Contact Bartlepye Residential on 01305 230477 or go to www.bartlepyehomes.co.uk.

MARKET UPDATE

I was pleased to read in the Midweek Herald this week a piece written by the well respected Honiton Agent – Roger Hemming. His main point was about being realistic and I agree wholeheartedly with what he had to say.

The national press has jumped on the Gloom Wagon once again and predictions for the housing market are not good for the coming years.

However, some agents insist that everything in the garden is rosy and continue to over value property. The fact is that it is a buyers market and properties are taking longer to sell and offers (for the most part) are lower.

There remain some properties which buck this trend and I think, always will – these are those dream properties in the right locations, anything from a very well located and sizable development opportunity to a chocolate box cottage with views to die for. Properties that fall into this category comprise the “British Dream” for want of a better description, with many hard working people having the desire to retire to a beautiful home in the country and these days it isn’t just retirees that can do this with more people able to work from home bases, many younger folk make this move sooner than expected. If these properties are priced realistically in the first place, they will generate a good deal of interest and mostly achieve above asking price. However, many are vastly overpriced at the start and the intelligent buyer will not wear this and therefore not even view it at all.

We believe in being honest and realistic about price but will also work very hard to get you the best deal we can if we believe it is achievable.

World premiere of Saab's first electric vehicle

SAAB Automobile is taking its first step towards developing an all-electric vehicle with the Saab 9-3 ePower.

Making its world premiere at the Paris International Motor Show later this month, the Saab 9-3 ePower is the prototype for a test fleet of 70 vehicles which will participate in extensive field trials in Sweden early next year. This all-electric family estate represents an important step forward for Saab's pursuit of delivering cleaner and sustainable mobility solutions. The performance of the cars will be evaluated under a variety of real-world driving conditions as part of the development process for a purpose-built, electric Saab vehicle. Targets to be verified include a projected driving range of approximately 200 kilometers through the use of high-density energy storage in lithium-ion battery cells.

The 356 legend continues: the new Porsche 911 Speedster

THE SPEEDSTER name is one of the most evocative in the history of Porsche.

First used on the classic 356 model of 1953, the Speedster quickly became synonymous with low-slung, open-top, two-seater Porsche sports cars that attracted free-spirited driving enthusiasts seeking the ultimate 'wind in the hair' experience. Now, in celebration of the Speedster legend, Porsche is introducing a new 911 Speedster at the Paris Salon on October 2, and to commemorate its famous '50s forebear, the production run is limited to just 356 examples.

Designed and conceived by the Porsche Exclusive department in Stuttgart, the two-seater 911 Speedster is significantly different from the other members of the 911 family.

Every Porsche Speedster was traditionally distinguished by its shortened windscreen and sleek tail, and the new 911 likewise features a 60mm lowered and raked windscreen and the characteristic 'double-bubble' hardcover for the manual soft top.

The striking profile of the new 911 Speedster is further defined by the use of the Carrera 4 body, the 44 millimetre wider rear stance of which additionally gives powerful visual emphasis to the rear wheel-drive configuration of the car.

Just as the style of the new 911 Speedster features contemporary re-interpretations of classic Porsche Speedster iconography, the characteristic rear-engined chassis features the best from the current 911 generation. The 3.8-litre flat six has been tuned to deliver 408 hp (300 kW), 23 hp more than in the 911 Carrera S. With average fuel consumption of 27.43 mpg (10.3 litres/100 km) (NEDC), the new Speedster uses no more fuel than the standard 911 Carrera S Cabriolet – a consequence of Porsche Intelligent Performance2.

Peppers School of Motoring now covering West Dorset

IT'S ONE of the biggest things in our lives. Everyone wants to do it – many just can't wait. It gives us freedom and independence and has the potential to change our lives like little else. And no-one forgets who taught them...

Established in the mid 90's, Peppers School of Motoring is a Devon based company who has helped thousands of people learn to drive. Our excellent reputation is the back bone of our success and James Thomson is now bringing it to your area.

We believe that learning should be fun friendly and relaxed, and our rates are competitive too, with the first six lessons for just five pounds each and discounts available for block bookings.

To find out how James can get you behind the wheel, give Peppers a call on 0800 026 9165 or visit

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

SEASIDERS SALVAGE A POINT

Winsham antics disgust Robins

DIVISION ONE CUP

Round One
Charmouth 1 Winsham Utd 2

CHARMOUTH'S best performance of the season so far couldn't prevent an early exit of the Division One Cup at the hands of Winsham Utd in a stormy tie at Barrs Lane.

The visitors opened the scoring with a free-kick from Chris Morris. But The Robins leveled when Graham Herring crossed for Dan Rendall to convert from 12 yards.

Winsham took control after the restart and booked a quarter-final at Netherbury when Dan Isaacs headed home the winner two minutes from time.

Charmouth assistant manager Nick Pomeroy was impressed with the hosts performance but was scathing about a tackle that left defender Danny Parr on crutches after the game, he said: "It was a terrible tackle. And to make things worse the lad came over after the game and kicked Danny's crutches away from under him - we will be informing the League it was disgraceful behaviour."

Lyme Regis Res 5 Ilminster Colts 0 (at Ilminster)

CUP holders Ilminster Colts' grip on the 56-year-old trophy ended when they were hammered 5-0 by Lyme Regis Reserves.

After a goal less first-half, The Seaside took the lead 20 seconds after the restart when Fred Thomson broke the deadlock. Luke Street crossed for player-manager Gerard Hitchcock to nod home the second soon after.

Lyme's place in the last eight was assured when Thomson's shot was saved only for Hitchcock to clip home the rebound from a tight angle.

Hitchcock then found skipper Tim Edwards who crisply slotted home number four. Street rounded off the scoring and Lyme head off to Thorncombe for a quarter-final at Thorncombe on October 9th.

Netherbury 4 Forton Rangers 3

TWICE winners Netherbury are also still in the hat. The Ambers needed extra-time before edging past Forton Rangers 4-3.

James Sayers netted in the second minute to give Netherbury an early lead. But Rangers eased into a 3-1 half-time lead with strikes from Lee Richardson (2) and John Smith.

However, some interval cup throwing and the introduction of sub Phil Hussey, by manager Andy Loudon saw the hosts move up through the gears.

Sayers reduced the arrears before youngster Nathan Patten bagged his first goal in Netherbury colours to force the extra 30 minutes.

The game was eventually decided by Tim Hussey who netted his fourth of the season.

Quarter-final draw: Netherbury v Winsham, Norton Athletic v Crewkerne Town, Thorncombe v Lyme Regis Reserves, Perry Street Reserves v Millway Rise.

PREMIER DIVISION
Farway Utd 0 South Petherton 3

SOUTH Petherton moved to the top of the table with a gritty victory at Farway United.

Dean Smith gave Pethy a 20th minute lead as the hosts paid the penalty for not converting several half-chances. Smith added a second ten minutes from time and Lee Richards rounded things off two minutes later. Farway boss Andy Bailey felt his side had put in a good shift, he said: "I thought we showed excellent commitment, effort and quality. But we must take our chances when they come along against the bigger teams, we lacked firepower up front."

New Petherton manager Gordon Childs felt his side deserved the win but that the scoreline may have flattered them slightly: "It's a difficult place to come to - I think they (Farway) will stay up and take points off others down there at Eastlee Park."

◆ Meanwhile new Petherton striker Marcus Alexander's inclusion is being scrutinised by PSL officials. According to the FA website Alexander is suspended from any action but Pethy, and his previous club Kingsbury, maintain all is well and the website has not been updated - watch this space!

Ilminster Res 4 Combe Res 0

THINGS are already looking tough for Combe Reserves. The Saints were beaten 4-0 at the Rec by a useful looking Ilminster Reserves side.

Misterton 2 Lyme Regis 2

LYME Regis' visit to Unity Lane appeared to heading for a frustrating goal less draw with 70 minutes on the clock and the Seaside's failing to turn the lion's share of possession and chances into goals. Worse was to follow when Jason Crabb capitalized on some slack defending to put Missy aside.

The lead was doubled in the 87th minute by a superb 20-yard curler from the hosts' player-manager Jack Platt and it seemed as though Misterton, the only side to beat the reigning champions last season, would grab a shock win.

The Seaside's pulled one back a minute later through Julien Simier's seventh goal of the season. Steve Batey appeared to have equalised with a header that looked to have bounced down off the crossbar and behind the goal line seconds later. But referee Martin Ives, after initially seeming to award the goal, changed his decision after consulting with the home linesman.

But Lyme weren't to be denied - and salvaged a point when Jason Hawker headed past Missy keeper Josh Dear who had an outstanding game.

Perry Street 0 Beaminster 4

BEAMINSTER continue to impress. The Rainbows, with keeper Adam Herring a virtual spectator, had few problems in beating Perry Street 4-0 with Murray Legg bagging a brace either side of half-time to add to Ben Ward's early stunning 20-yard volley.

New signing Dean Newman rounded off the scoring with his first goal for the club.

DIVISION ONE
Thorncombe 3 Perry Street Res 4

A LATE Kev Rowson penalty earned Perry Street Reserves all three points at bottom of the table Thorncombe.

Lee Fisher gave the Thorns a first minute lead but The Mothers leveled before the break but Stuart Packer restored the lead on the hour. But the visitors continued their good form to score twice and edge ahead. Packer struck in the 88th minute but a foul by Dan Winter allowed Rowson to net his second and the winner.

DIVISION TWO
Beaminster Res 6 Pymore 1

THREE wins and 17 goals have seen Beaminster quickly elevated to title favourites.

Josh Hunter took his season's tally to six with a superb hat-trick with Dan Pyett bagging two and Ross Picketts a single as neighbours Pymore were hit for six.

Beaminster manager Robin Ormsby felt his side, despite leading 2-0, were wasteful in the first-half. But an improved second 45 showing saw the hosts stride purposefully home. Lee Dowle (pen) scored for the visitors.

Chard Rangers 2 Hawkchurch 4

A Glenn Harding 30-yarder was the highlight of Hawkchurch's 4-2 win at Chard Rangers. Josh Lawrence, Stuart Weir and Dan Turner were also on target for the Hawks.

EXMOUTH took the lead in bizarre circumstances in the 15th minute when a huge kick from the Exmouth keeper bounced cruelly over James the Uplyme keeper and into the net. The visitors struck twice more soon after to ease 3-0 ahead.

Uplyme lost James with a hand injury in the 36th minute and was replaced by Ridout. Ridout performed well but was unable to keep out a Exmouth's fourth just before the interval.

Exmouth kept up the pressure in the second half but Uplyme held out until midway through the half when a corner was headed home to complete the scoring.

EAST DEVON U15 LEAGUE FOLDS

LYME Regis U15s have been left to play just friendlies in the coming season following the collapse of the East Devon U15s Division after just two teams were registered.

Lyme Youth section chairman Stuart Fowler confirmed that the club was considering moving all of it's teams into the Dorset League next season.

FENITONS 9 LYME REGIS U11 2

THE young Seaside's were given the runaway by a Feniton side boosted by the inclusion of several Exeter players.

Top performers for Lyme were goalkeeper Robbie Fowler and defender Sam Lawson. Finlay Maclean and Henry Davy scored the Lyme goals.

BRIDPORT CHESS CLUB

Bridport start new season

at Dorchester Jamboree

BRIDPORT Chess Club started off the new season by taking part in the annual Jamboree chess tournament. Hosted at Dorchester's Colliton Club, it is now in its fourth year and attracted players from Weymouth, Dorchester, Wimborne, Purbeck and Yeovil.

Bridport put in a good performance, with Tony Brake and Malcolm Steevens winning their games, and Colin Winch getting a draw, giving the club a total of 2 ½ points and a share of fourth place. Overall winners were Wimborne with 5 ½ points. Dorchester's A team took second place, Weymouth third, with Bridport tying with Yeovil and Dorchester B, with Purbeck last.

Bridport Chess club are keen to recruit new members to the club this season, and are offering free membership to anyone who would like to come along and try their hand. Players of all ages and abilities are welcome. The club has a team in the Dorset League, and also host in-house tournaments, as well as speed chess and friendly games.

The club meets at the George Hotel in South Street, Bridport on a Wednesday evening and offers a relaxed and friendly atmosphere with the opportunity to meet other chess players and improve your game. If you would like any more information please see the club website www.bridportchessclub.co.uk or phone Tony Brake on 01308 421173.

Lyme Regis Bowls

Jan signs off with Pairs Trophy

THIS has been another extremely busy week for the Club, despite it being the penultimate week of the season.

Not only did we have the last of the Club Finals, but the Henry Broom Rose Bowl, the final League game for Lyme 'A', four friendlies and the end of season Ladies v Gents. Add to this the fact that eight of Lyme's ladies went to the Dorset Ladies League Lunch and Presentation, it really has been a busy time.

Finals day not only produced some damp squibs but some really exciting and close games, most of which involved a Parsons or an Allman.

Two games really stood out, the Ladies Championship and the Ladies 4 Wood Pairs. Both of these games could have gone either way but, I think the winning of the championship title for Lady Captain Jan Parsons was a well deserved reward for the end of her two years in office.

The Ladies 4 wood pairs was a scrap between Jan Parsons & Judith Moffitt and Ann Allman & Chris Barber. This encounter featured some of the best bowlers in the Club, so the promise of a close encounter did not disappoint. In the end Parsons & Moffitt secured the title by 21-19.

Elsewhere, Bob Turpin accounted for much fancied Philip Stephens in the men's Rocky in another close game with Bob coming home by 21-17.

In the men's Handicap Singles Philip Stephens took his revenge when he outplayed Trevor Allman. Again, Trevor was well fancied to take this title but on the day Philip showed him a very 'clean pair of heels' winning as he did 21-9.

In the West Dorset League, Lyme 'A' failed to take any points from their visit to Wellworthy 'A' in their last game of the season.

The Henry Broom Rose Bowl was won by Glen Broom, who narrowly squeezed past Angela Rattenbury in what had to be near darkness when the game finished just before 8pm.

Results:

West Dorset Men Div 1.

Lyme 40; Wellworthy 'A' 54.

M Clark, C Vere, D Perry, J Wells 14-15; M Knight, P Stephens, D Pomeroy, B Parsons 15-19; G Clode, J Beadsley, A Preece, T Allman 11-20.

Henry Broom Rose Bowl: Glen Broom 22; Angela Rattenbury 18.

Ladies Championship Singles: Jan Parsons 22; Ann Allman 20.

Mens Handicap Singles: Trevor Allman 9; Philip Stephens 21.

Ladies 4 Wood Pairs: Ann Allman & Chris Barber 19; Judith Moffitt & Jan Parsons 21.

Mens 4 Wood Pairs: Mike Knight & Don Meylan 26; Geoff Cozens & Paul Moffitt 14.

Ladies Invitation: Brian Gillett & Nola Stephens 10; Peter Eagles & Chris Barber 19.

Friendlies:

Lyme Men 79; Bridport Men 98.

R Turpin, P Stephens, J Beadsley, E Skeemer 10-26; C Clissold, R Cridge, R Edwards, C Barber 20-21; M

Clark, R Winterborne, K Fountaine, D Meylan 15-17; G Broom, R Hobbs, B Parsons, P Moffitt 14-22; B Downes, A Preece, G Cozens, B Rattenbury 20-12.

Lyme 63; Topham 129.

C Clissold, D Courtenay-Smith, E Rodgers, R Edwards 12-28; Y Moody, T Poyner, H Dowling, D Perry 17-20; R McLennan, C Bell, A Preece, J Parsons 8-27; A Lole, A Rattenbury, R Moody, P Moffitt 9-31; D Read, B Downes, R Winterborne, B Rattenbury 17-23.

Lyme 98; Chard 69.

T Payne, Jill Wells, L Broom, B Rattenbury 36-13. This score included yet another hot-shot for Barry & his team; R McLennan, J Andrews, E Skeemer, S Rowe 20-26; J Moffitt, A Brown, A Preece, John Wells 16-20; T Coldrick, A Rattenbury, G Cozens, P Moffitt 26-10.

Lyme 98; Dorset Patrons 112.

J Beavis, T Poyner, B Gillett, G Cozens 14-19; T Payne, S Dowling, R Winterborne, K Clissold 14-20; T Coldrick, H Dowling, J Beadsley, John Wells 19-22; B Downes, M Gillett, R Moody, N Stephens 21-19; Y Moody, P Stephens, Jill Wells, C Clissold 12-18; C Bell, D Courtenay-Smith, K Fountaine, R Edwards 18-14.

Finally, the week ended with the annual Ladies v Gents competition. The ladies side had some very dubious looking characters representing them. The ladies skip next to my rink seemed to have continual running repairs to her various bits of support, not to mention diving into the equipment shed to light her bag.

WEYMOUTH SPEEDWAY

WILDCATS FOR SALE

WEYMOUTH Weyline Wildcats Chairman Phil Bartlett has announced that he wishes to step down as chairman of the Wildcats, and confirmed that Weymouth Speedway is for sale.

Bartlett said that the club will be sold will be sold to the best offer that has the best interests of the club to move forward and keep operating in the future, and that any interested parties can contact him on his mobile 07841 042475.

"I feel it's time that I need to take this move to concentrate more on my business's and my personal life and quite clearly after running the club for six years it's time to move forward and let someone else take the successes forward. We had fantastic success in 2008 in the season when we won the league and the four. We tried to do that in 2009 but we were runners up to the team that won with half of our team from the previous season.

"This year we have suffered with injuries all the way through. With rider unavailability it's proved to be very difficult to find replacements for riders when injured and we've been glad of the successes on track. Therefore I made the decision last Friday; a decision that hasn't been taken lightly but has been ongoing for some months.

"I have had a couple of offers of people that have come forward, one was to take on a partnership and form a consortium to help me, but it's not the way forward after running the club on my own. Another offer has come in but nothing has been firmed up. He wanted to make moves forward but nothing more has been forthcoming so therefore I have decided to put the club up for sale and stand down as chairman.

Hopefully the club will continue forward and have more of the success that we have enjoyed, bringing it back to winning ways and winning the league in 2011."

Mixed fortunes for Wildcats as injury jinx strikes again

WEYMOUTH Wildcats had mixed National League Trophy fortunes over the weekend in which their injury jinx struck again with Friday's home victory over Isle of Wight being curtailed after the first running of Heat 15 due to an injury to Wildcat Dan Halsey which has put him out of action for the rest of the season.

They travelled to Plymouth next day but suffered a close defeat at the hands of Plymouth Devils.

National League Trophy Weymouth 47 Isle of Wight 39

WEYMOUTH Weyline Wildcats completed their fourth home win against the Isle of Wight Islanders this season at the Wessex Stadium on Friday in a fixture that was curtailed after the first running of heat 15 which saw Wildcat Dan Halsey crash into the first turn safety fence before being taken to hospital.

Halsey and Cockle got the home side off on winning ways with a first heat 5-1 over Starke and Felton. Resch took the flag in heat two with Hill third and Cottham splitting the pair for the Wildcats. A shared heat 3 followed with Mason taking the flag ahead of former Cats Smethills and Warwick after a great tussle for first early on. McKinna and Cottham chalked up a heat advantage with Simmons battling hard to split the Cats pair in heat 4.

Starke and Felton hit back hard with a 5-1 in heat 5 over Brown and Mason to level the scores 15-15. The Wildcats regained the lead in heat 6 thanks to Cockle storming through the field and Halsey banging in their second 5-1 of the evening over Resch and Simmons.

A heat advantage for Smethills and Warwick split by McKinna who forced his way past Warwick, left the Cats with a slender two point lead after heat 7.

Their lead was extended to six points when Halsey, unbeaten by an opponent, combined with Cottham for a 5-1 over Resch and Felton in heat 8. Brown and Mason extended the lead in heat 9 although Simmons was never far from the back wheel of Brown who made the start in both runs of the heat; Hill fell on the second bend first lap forcing a re-run. The Cats were now holding an eight point advantage, 34-26.

Two shared heats followed; in heat 10 Warwick showing the form when he wore the Wildcats race jacket, inflicting the first defeat on Halsey by an opponent after an early wheel to wheel challenge, with Cockle in third. McKinna kept Starke and Felton at bay in heat 11 with the scores standing at 37-29.

A killer 5-1 from Brown and Cottham came in heat 12 over Resch, with Warwick retiring from the heat giving the South Coast side a 12 point lead. Islander team managers Chris Hunt and Kevin Shepherd sent Starke out in the black and white helmet for double points in a tactical ride in heat 13; a very tight tussle for first between Cockle and Starke who came home second ahead of Simmons but behind Cockle leaving 10 points between the sides. Smethills and Resch combined for a heat 14 advantage while Mason took second spot, to cut the difference by two.

The last heat of the night was stopped by referee Graham Reeve after an unsatisfactory start and first bend fall which saw Halsey clatter into the fence heavily. After a lengthy delay Halsey took a trip to hospital in the track ambulance which meant there was no alternative but to call the meeting at 47-39 with only ten minutes to curfew time remaining, not enough for a replacement ambulance to arrive trackside.

Wildcats chairman Phil Bartlett said after the meeting: "The lads put on a good show tonight, it's a shame for Dan, he's a nice kid, one of the real nice guys in speedway, and we don't know the extent of his injury to his back at the moment. It just about sums our season up. I've had enough, it's time for me to go, we've been plagued by injuries and it's getting tiring. I certainly want to spend my time with my new partner Samantha and the family away from the sport and concentrate on my businesses."

National League Trophy Plymouth 48 Weymouth 44

WILDCATS were off to a flying start in the first heat with home favourite Glanz being beaten into third place behind Wildcats pair Gary Cottham and James Cockle.

Heat two saw a terrifying crash which ruled out Devils reserve Ben Reade for the rest of the meeting after his machine picked up speed and became airborne exiting the second turn.

Rider and machine were tangled in the second bend fencing with a long delay for repairs to the fence and for Reade to be checked over by the medical team. In the re-run heat Wildcats capitalised with a second 5-1, Cottham again tearing away with Richard Andrews cutting inside Bob Charles to grab second spot.

Home star Seemond Stephens showed the way in the re-run of heat 3 following Tom Brown's disqualification after sliding off on the second turn.

Karl Mason managed to split the Devils with Matt Bates back in third. Another re-run in heat 4 after Bob Charles fell second turn, third lap which lone Devils veteran Simmons won with no mistake over Cottham and McKinna with the scores at 9-15. Cockle forced his way past Bates in heat 5 splitting the Devils of Stephens and Bates.

Devils sprang a 5-1 to level the scores at 18-18 with Glanz and Pickard over McKinna who started with a 15 meter handicap after failing to make the two minute time allowance, Cottham slipped from second to fourth. A heat 7 advantage for the Devils saw them take the lead for the first time, Simmons taking the flag from Mason and Charles after Brown fell and remounted to finish last. Heat 8 was shared, with Pickard taking the win from Cottham who lead for the first lap with Mason third. Devils then edged out a four point cushion with McKinna splitting Stephens and Bates in heat 9. Glanz and Pickard combined for another 5-1 in heat 10 putting the Devils 34-26 in the lead.

Simmonds took the lead from early leader Cockle on turn three of the first lap to share the points in heat 11 with Cottham third for the Wildcats keeping an eight point advantage for the Devils. The Wildcats hit back in heat 12 taking a heat advantage with former Devil Brown winning from Bates with Andrews tucking in for third which narrowed the gap to a Devils six point lead. Glanz and Simmons put Plymouth into a ten point lead in heat 13 over the Wildcats 44-34. Team manager and outgoing Wildcats chairman brought in Cottham as a tactical ride for double points, in heat 14. Cottham touched the tapes and had to start from 15 metres back in the re-run heat. Stephens was away at the front but Mason tucked in for second for the Wildcats allowing Cottham to come through to second cutting the Devils lead.

Drama in the last heat the Wildcats needed a heat advantage to secure a league point for their troubles. Pickard fell and didn't remove himself from turn one, Mick Bates the referee put the red lights on as the remaining three riders continued their first lap, Cockle and Glanz slowed up in time, but Brown was unsighted and laid his bike down which clattered into Pickards machine.

Pickard, the Devils man of the match, moved very quickly at this stage to avoid being hit himself. In the re-run Glanz took the lead until Cockle forced his way past into first place followed by Brown a lap later after Glanz made a mistake. The Wildcats grabbed a last heat 5-1 giving a final score from the St. Boniface Arena 48-44.

Wildcats chairman Phil Bartlett said after the meeting "We started off well with a couple of 5-1's, it was a hard fought meeting all the way, a 48-44 result was a good result on the road with a league point for our troubles."

The Wildcats covered for Dan Halsey with rider replacement following his crash on Friday night and Bartlett said: "The latest news on Dan is that he has two squashed vertebrae and fractured the L2 vertebrae in his lower back which sadly finishes his season, he has been a great addition to the team and we would all like to wish him a speedy recovery."

Wildcats number one James Cockle said "Heat 15 was good. We have the last couple of meetings coming up and I hope we don't have to rely on heat 15. We started the meeting blinding today. I'm always determined when I come here, it's one of those tracks that you've got to beat; their boys they are good around here.

It's a lot smoother and you can ride hard round here now, just a pity there's no dirt. It's a bit hard doing it in heat 15 all the time, but you're a hero when you do it."

Lyme lift inter-club trophy

LYME Regis beat West Bay in the Lyme Bay Sea Angling Trophy that has been competed for close on forty years. The annual match which also includes teams from Beer and District, Honiton and Axminster was held this year in Seaton.

Although the big tide was ideal, the venue fished very poorly with the good fish being very scarce.

Lyme, who have only been involved for the last two years decided to fish on the rougher ground to the left of the river and were rewarded with two bull huss, a few dogfish and a mullet which all helped them to win with a total of 537 per cent from West Bay with 472 per cent. The other clubs struggled to catch any fish.

Sunday daytime fish - September 5th

TEN members turned out to fish the match where most chose to fish for mackerel and garfish using a pop up rig to fish mid water just a short distance out.

This proved a good choice as a lot of mackerel and gar were caught. Phil Maggs won the competition with 2kg 470g of mullet, mackerel and garfish as well as Claiming the heaviest fish with a 715g mullet.

Oliver Mears claimed second with 2kg 325g with Adam Cullingford third with 765g. Dave Cornick, with four claimed most species.

Thursday night fish - September 2nd

TWENTY members signed on to fish the latest Thursday night match at Seatown, on a calm bright evening. Though plenty of fish were caught, nothing of notable size was landed.

During the daylight some garfish fell to float tackle and on the rocky ground some small wrasse were caught but it was not till after dark that some good pout were landed. Only one dogfish came to the scales, brought in by Peter Grinter.

Craig Horton's 1kg 160g huss won him the heaviest fish and helped to win the overall event in a total of 3kg 660g which also included mackerel, scad, pout and poor cod.

WEYMOUTH GOLF CLUB - LADIES

Ollife is new club champion

AUGUST was very busy with the completion of two of the clubs big 36 hole stroke play competitions (writes Elaine Rockingham).

The club championship played off scratch was won by Julie Ollife whilst Monica Barter, the oldest competitor to take part won the Van Noort Trophy played off handicap. Hearty congratulations go to both, particularly Monica who was, and deserves to be, very proud of her achievement.

Other important cup competitions played throughout the spring and summer months were also completed in August. The Templer Cup, a handicap, singles knock out was won this year by Pat Leonard, whilst the Hill Trophy, a scratch, singles knockout competition was won by Lisa Lown. The Muir Foursome, a matchplay foursome's knockout, was won by Margaret Geddes and June Hamon.

These results are the culmination of many tough and demanding matches. The winners have played with much determination and spirit; many congratulations to all.

The Interclub team played Park-stone in the final of the Interclub on August 23rd, and although playing very well in a tough match, went down 4 ½ - 2 ½.

Weymouth beat Wareham 3-0 at Bulbury Woods in the semi-final of the Parkin in early August. The team consisting of Monica Barter, Jennifer Kimberly and Eileen Ferguson played extremely well and will play Parkstone in the final this month.

The County Mixed Foursomes was played at Parkstone on August 15th. Laura Dodginton partnered Calvin Drage in the scratch division, whilst Monica Barter partnered Ashley Wilding in the handicap division, and whilst they did themselves justice, they were unsuccessful.

August was also a lively month for other summer events. Charity Week and Ladies Captain's Day were important highlights. Many ladies entered and thoroughly enjoyed both the Mixed Open and the Ladies Scramble.

P J Wheeler was second with 3kg 500g and Mears third with 2kg 960g. Maggs, with five, claimed most species.

Saturday junior fish - September 4th

JAKE Preston won this junior fish in a close finish with Mears.

All six members managed to catch some fish from the East Pier, West Bay, including shanny, wrasse, flounder, whiting, garfish, mackerel and Pollack in a sea that was choppy with a slight swell and colour which was clearing.

Early on in the match Preston manage to hook and land a mackerel, the first caught in a junior match this year. Later on Mears caught a 122g legal weight garfish, once again the first of the year in a junior match.

Both of the fish were over the minimum size for their respective species, with the mackerel (324g legal weight) being heavier which gave Preston the match as well as Heaviest Round Fish.

Adam Chudley was third with 466g which included the Heaviest Flat Fish, a 63g flounder. Elliot Joy picked up the wooden spoon.

Prizes were donated by: The Old Watchouse Café, Kay Guppy and Tiny.

Saturday junior fish - September 18th

Mears got his revenge on Preston in the latest junior fish, winning with 473g legal weight including a 41g flounder that took Heaviest Flat Fish.

Preston had to settle for second place with 1kg 527g and Heaviest Round Fish and Heaviest Non-legal Fish; a 257g mullet.

Five of the six juniors who took part caught a range Pollock, shanny, mackerel, wrasse, bass, weever and pout in a calm and clear sea with a westerly 3 wind. Connor Hallett was third with 667g and Elliot Joy caught the Last Fish. Kyle Napier was the unfortunate angler that received the wooden spoon.

Prizes donated by: The Old Watchouse Café, Les Peters, Mike Hallett, Kay Guppy and Tiny.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

BRIDPORT 59pts, BRADFORD ON AVON 111
CONDITIONS were ideal for open running rugby at the Brewery Field, with lush grass and only the hint of a sea breeze blowing. Bridport chose to face it in the first period and really could hardly have got off to a better start.

The visitors' kick-off did not travel ten yards; Bridport played it and, after a couple of thrusts, centre Idris Croft took advantage of some poor alignment in the Bradford on Avon defence and got over five yards in from touch.

The try remained unconverted but another home score came before the game was 15 minutes old. They won rather untidy ball on the halfway mark and, with few options available, as-sayed a chip ahead. The visitors' full-back made the mistake of letting the ball bounce and Stubbs was well up to gather and put Guylor in at the posts. Stubbs converted from in front and Bridport led 12-0.

The next few minutes belonged to the visitors however, aided and abetted by a slice of good fortune. A long kick into home territory ran dead, but was called 'touched in flight' and a five yard scrum ensued. The defence coped however and eventually turned over possession and kicked clear.

The home side was having some success with its chips ahead and, after threatening from another such play, increased their lead on the half hour. They set up a position close to their opponents' line and, although the heel was slow, scrum-half Hill broke and squeezed over halfway out. The conversion kick went wide but they scored a fourth try that netted them a bonus point five minutes before the break.

They won possession on halfway and embarked on a bout of short passing that saw them make ground. They appeared to have been checked inside their opponents' twenty five but kept going, and Ewart, substituting for Guylor who had left the field with a shoulder injury, got over.

The conversion was successful, and Bridport scored again before the halfway stage, and the try was a good one. Winning possession on halfway, they sent the ball left and winger Elliott made good ground, taking the inside channel before offloading and putting Allen in under the posts. Elliott added the extras and Bridport were, I thought, good value for their 31-0 half time lead.

Play during the first ten minutes of the second half took place, for the most part, in home territory. The defence coped however and eventually sent Bradford on Avon empty away. They were committing the odd error at this stage and forfeited one or two promising positions early in the half as a consequence.

Third quarter was a little messy all round and the visitors' cause was not helped when their hooker was sent to the bin for stamping. Bridport's back row had been going well all game, and the ball that they were winning was eminently useable. They recycled quickly three times in succession on the hour and Nick Hill, playing at ten wriggled over by the posts.

Elliott goaled the try and, now seemingly, having found the secret, his side scored again a couple of minutes later, and a good try it was. Number eight Pibworth started the move by picking up and running strongly from a scrum inside his own half. He was hauled down on the visitors' twenty two but made the ball available. It was sent wide and Stubbs touched down some ten yards in from touch. Elliott was kicking well and goaled the try and, with the score standing at 45-0 with fifteen minutes left Bridport were out of sight.

They scored twice more before the end and Elliott converted both of them. He scored the first himself when he was the beneficiary of quickly recycled possession inside the visitors' twenty two; then at the last, skipper Sean Stewart got in under the posts to complete the scoring and to end a most satisfactory afternoon.

Bridport will gain immeasurably in confidence from this run-away win against opponents who contributed more to the contest than the score remotely suggests. I thought that the quick loose possession won by their back row had much to do with it, as did the place kicking of Elliott. I hope that they can now put the Trowbridge game well and truly behind them.

The Bridport second side had a friendly encounter at Ivel Barbarians 2nd.

DORCHESTER 36pts, OLDFIELD OLD BOYS 20pts

DORCHESTER would have ended the day satisfied with the way that this bonus point win was achieved, while being aware that there is still scope for improvement in their overall performance. In fact they started slowly and fell behind to a couple of early penalty goals.

The visitors, playing with the wind at their backs, were making use of it and were winning the territorial game; although the home pack were gradually establishing some control and Bament reduced the arrears around the end of the first quarter by kicking a penalty goal.

The Dorchester backs then had their say and, after a break by out half Jones, play was switched to the narrow side and winger Morgan had the pace to get over and run to the posts. Bament kicked the conversion from in front and the home side led 10-6 at the halfway stage.

Dorchester had very much the better of the third quarter. A drop kick by Jones weaved an inebriated way through the up-rights and, when the same player got over in the corner after a good break by Bament, they had stretched clear at 18-6 ahead.

More was yet to come. Oldfield infringed from the restart and, from the scrum, back rower Bamlet combined with his scrum half and put full back Read clear. He touched down and, although the try remained unconverted, the result was now seemingly safe with the score standing at 23-6 in home favour.

Not so! Dorchester then embarked on something of a isilly season! and their opponents scored two converted tries within the next five minutes to threaten. Dorchester gathered themselves, however.

Bament got over in the corner and, having recalibrated his radar, converted his try from near touch. He kicked a penalty at the last as well as the home side snuffed out any further thoughts their opponents had of staging a rally.

The Dorchester second side, after winning its first league game, came unstuck against Swanage & Wareham thirds, going down 5-25. The third side however enjoyed what was a real stroll in the park, amassing one hundred and three points without reply against visitors Swanage & Wareham fourths.

DORCHESTER U16 31pts, BOURNEMOUTH 24pts

AFTER a settling in period that saw both sides making unforced errors, it was the visitors who opened the scoring when their right winger used his pace to get over in the corner. The try remained unconverted and Dorchester levelled with a try by Max Ford after a move in which forwards and backs joined. An injury to Vivian caused disruption in their ranks temporarily but, before the break, a clearance kick was well followed by Holmes. He got a kindly bounce, gathered and ran to the posts from all of seventy yards. Harry Smith added the extras and the home side led 12-5 at the break.

The sides exchanged unconverted tries after the resumption, with Henry Dale touching down in the corner for Dorchester but, soon after, the visitors scored a converted try to tie the scores at 17-17.

The game continued to be a inip and tucki affair, with an individual try by Will Holmes, again converted by Smith, countered by a similar Bournemouth effort. With the scores tied at 24-24 and the 'no side' whistle looming it was Dorchester who had the final word when Kieran Fry ran strongly and crashed over. Smith again added the extras and Dorchester were home after a contest that, although exciting, was rather itoo close for comfort.

SHERBORNE 2nd 5pts, WEYMOUTH 5pts

IF one was to be negative one could suggest that the Weymouth first side would not know what to do with a win if they found one lying about.

One could equally intimate that they arenit all that keen on losing either. I watched their first league game of the season when they ended the day drawing seventeen points each.

It was rather a similar story at Sherborne for their second outing. It was a close, hard-fought encounter with no quarter asked or given, and with nothing separating the sides when the whistle for ino side! blew.

As in their previous encounter, defences were on top for most of the game, with Weymouth responding to an unconverted try, with a similar effort of their own, touched down by centre Lewendon.

WEYMOUTH 2nd 38pts, VERWOOD 6pts

IN complete contrast to a try that really made the result save, Weymouth seconds are enjoying a high scoring start to their Dorset & Wilts Division Three (South) campaign.

They opened their account against Verwood with a Les Moon try, following with another by Lee Johnson, converted by Nathan Allen. Dre Turuko scored their third before the break, again converted by his skipper and, although the visitors contributed a couple of penalty goals before the break, the home side would have been satisfied with the 19-6 half time score-line.

Another member of the Allen clan, Lewis, made his presence felt after the break with a try that really made the result save. Brother Nathan could not convert this one but added the extras to the final two, the first of which was touched down by Tibble and the second by Mount to complete the sideis second decisive win of their campaign.

PREFVIEW

AFTER a couple of tight encounters that have ended with the scores equal, I wish I could forecast a high scoring flowing encounter for WEYMOUTH.

Alas! I doubt very much if that will be the case on Saturday when WARMINSTER are the visitors for, having seen them a couple of time last season, I seem to remember that they have a large and lumpy pack of forwards, and generally play a game of attrition.

They are no mugs however and I watched them beat Bridport by the odd point last season. If Weymouth send the ball wide at every opportunity, I think they will come out on top. If they are drawn into an arm wrestle, they will be playing the game on Warminsteris terms.

I have come to the conclusion, perhaps belatedly, that the Southern Counties (South) division has in it a wide spread of clubs, ability wise.

BRIDPORT, who have both lost and won heavily in their current campaign, take on SHERBORNE, a club whose record is rather similar. Much will depend on the performance of the Bridport back row. It provided quick loose ball on Saturday, thus allowing the back division to hurt the opposition. If it can do so again, then Bridport have a good chance of coming out on top.

Sherborne, like Bridport, have played Bradford on Avon this term and have beaten them, though not as convincingly as Bridport did on Saturday last. They do have home advantage however, and I think this will be a close one.

DORCHESTER make the trek to MARLBOROUGH and I do expect them to win there for the home side have not shown too much on their two previous outings thus far. The Dorchester defence has conceded a few tries this season however and they will be keen to address this, the more especially as the local leagues have entered the era of bonus points for tries scored.

As to the second teams, I do take Weymouth seconds to maintain their winning run at North Dorset fourths, as should Bridport seconds at home to North Dorset thirds.

Dorchester seconds should have too much for East Dorset, while their third side will do well to win at Blandford 2nd.

FIXTURES 25th SEPTEMBER: Bridport v Sherborne (away); Bridport 2nd v North Dorset 3rd, Dorchester v Marlborough (away); Dorchester 2nd v East Dorset, Dorchester 3rd v Blandford 2nd (away); Weymouth v Warminster Weymouth 2nd v North Dorset 4th (away).

LYME REGIS with Steve Percival
Presidents Prize competition

PLAYED as a stableford competition, the annual "Presidents Prize" was staged on Sunday 19 September in perfect golfing conditions.

In the event the scores carded more than matched the conditions with Antony Warwick carding a highly impressive 42 points in a round that included 12 pars or better. In second place was Rob Coombe with 40 points narrowly beating John McGinley on countback.

Seniors Stableford "Ted Ray Putter" competition

MONDAY, September 20th was yet another perfect day for golf, with very little wind and fairways and greens in excellent condition.

A total of 68 senior golfers took to the field to contest the annual "Ted Ray putter" stableford competition. Whilst the top scorers recorded some outstanding totals many, for whatever reason could not match their scores to the conditions. However, Alan Woodbridge, who has been recording some good scores in other competitions, finally seems to have made the breakthrough that he has promised for so long and recorded an exceptional 42 points playing off a 22 handicap. Alan also headed the field in the division two competition. As a result he has now been deservedly reduced to 19.6.

In second place, having recently recovered from a troubling back problem, was Richard Thompson with a very impressive 38 points off a 13 handicap to also take lead position in the division one competition. The third place was taken by Jack Hansen with 37 points narrowly beating Alastair Purcell on countback.

Buckler looks forward to another good season

LAST season was a difficult one for national hunt racing. In addition to appalling weather that forced the cancellation of around a fifth of scheduled race meeting for which both the prize money and the general revenue to the sport has been lost, prize money was reduced due to the economic climate, making the returns for owners, trainers and jockeys far less attractive writes Stuart Broom.

It is therefore credit to Bob Buckler that although he did not win as much money as the previous year by less than £3,000, he moved up the UK trainer's prize money table from 32nd to 29th, winning a total of £216,933.

"As a whole it was one of the hardest seasons to train because of the weather and the resultant extremes of ground conditions," said Buckler.

The staff are now well settled in their new home; purpose built stables at Higher Peckmore, Henley, near Crewkerne, and are preparing their charges for the season ahead which starts in earnest at the beginning of October.

The big disappointment is the loss of Niche Market who has been moved by his owner Graham Reagan to Paul Nicholls' stable at Ditcheat.

It came as a big surprise to Buckler when the 2009 Irish Grand National winner was moved in the summer without any warning.

"These things happen in racing, and there is nothing you can do about it," said Buckler philosophically.

One of the successes has been the riding of conditional jockey Nathan Sweeney who joined last summer. The young Irishman rode seven winners in his first season in Britain, and has just returned to the saddle after breaking his collarbone in a fall at Worcester earlier in the summer.

"He's done very well and is improving and learning all the time. One of the stables highlights of the season was the Grade 1 Betfair Ascot Chase in February where Nathan rode The Sawyer, the 20/1 outsider, to perfection to finish third behind Monet's Garden in a very high class field of six. I will be using him a lot more this season and believe that he will do much better with the experience of a seasons riding behind him."

Buckler will still be using Harry Skelton, who rode Niche Market to victory at Fairyhouse, with Daryl Jacob and Will Kennedy as back up when available.

As with football clubs there is always a turnover of personnel, and stables are no different.

Among the newcomers are two horses from Robert Alner's stable, Johnny Red, and a yet unnamed 4-year-old gelding.

Robert and his wife Sally retired from training in August following a serious car accident that left Robert in a wheelchair, and as a result the horses in the stable have been redistributed to new trainers.

Buckler said: "It is terribly tragic that such a wonderful and successful training partnership like Robert and Sally have had to retire in such circumstances and racing will be a lot poorer for it. I am however really pleased to have received the two horses and hope that we can have the same kind of success with them that the Alner's might have."

Besides Niche Market, the stable said a sad farewell to I Hear Thunder, one of the most consistent horses that Buckler has ever trained. Such was his consistency; he rarely ran a bad race; that he never received any relief from the handicapper, and would surely have won more races had he done so.

The highlight of his career was probably winning the Grand Sefton Chase at Aintree in November 2006, storming home by seven lengths under Daryl Jacob. The 12-year-old may well be going hunting in the winter and may go hunter chasing come the spring.

Buckler said in tribute: "He always gave his best. He was a super horse, and one of the nicest I have ever trained, and it was very sad to see him go."

Fixed Interest has been retired following a reoccurrence of tendon problems that plagued his racing career, whilst Howlin At The Moon has been sold and will be going point-to-point racing in Devon.

Campden Annie has been sold as a brood mare, whilst Mrs Overall after a promising debut found it difficult to adapt to racing, and has been retired to go eventing.

Sean Thornton's short career was ended in April when he was struck into at Fontwell which damaged his tendon and seriously threatened his life. He is currently in rehabilitation but will not race again.

Next week Buckler gives a run-down of the horses in the stable this season.

HILL DOUBLE RELIEVES MAGPIES WOES

DORCHESTER TOWN 3
BOREHAM WOOD 1

Blue Square South - Attendance: 420

RELIEF was etched on the faces of the Dorchester Town management and players at the final whistle as they finally got the victory that has been eluding them all season.

Another two thunderbolts from Ryan Hill and a superb penalty from Giuseppe Sole sealed victory that finally got Dorchester's season up and running. After eight Blue Square Bet South games without a win, the Magpies went into this match under extreme pressure to perform against fellow strugglers Boreham Wood, and although it wasn't the prettiest of spectacles, the result was just the tonic manager Ashley Vickers required.

Vickers made just one change to his side that lost to Ebbsfleet, bringing in Steve Devlin for Dave Allen in midfield.

As may be expected, Dorchester made a tentative start, and conceded five corners in the first 15 minutes, and should have gone behind on ten minutes when skipper Scott Guyett's interception let in Claude Seanla, but he shot straight at keeper Simon Jones.

However they took the lead on 16 minutes from the penalty spot when Danny King and Mario Notto clipped Danny Ings heels as he cut in from the left, and Sole made no mistake with the perfect penalty, low to Wood keeper Ashlee Jones' right.

This fired the Magpies and Sole was close soon after with an acrobatic volley that went over the top, before they doubled their lead on 26 minutes.

Nobo who had a nightmare of a game, conceded a free kick 30-yards from goal, and Hill produced another of his stunning free-kicks to fire the ball into the top right hand corner leaving Jones clutching air.

Wood rarely troubled the Magpies defence despite a fair amount of possession, and their only effort on goal of note before the interval came from a Seanla volley.

Nick Crittenden fired wide from a rebound early in the second half before Noto realised it wasn't his day when he fired a great chance wide from the edge of the box.

Hill put the result beyond doubt on 72 minutes when Nobo brought down Devlin 25-yards from goal, and the right-back fired home his fourth goal of the season via the underside of the bar.

Lee Kersey had a chance to reduce the arrears but headed over from close in before Noto finally did something right in the last minute. His corner was missed by Evans, and Leon McKenzie at the far post nodded it back across goal for Daniel Braithwaite to nod home from close in to give Wood a late consolation.

DORCHESTER TOWN FC SUPPORTERS TRUST
Another curry evening with the trust

FOLLOWING the success of their inaugural curry evening earlier in the year, Dorchester Town Supporters Trust will be hosting a second one on Thursday, September 30th at The Masala Indian restaurant in Dorchester.

The evening will begin at 8pm with tickets priced at £15 per person for an 'all you can eat' buffet, poppadoms with pickles and a choice of drink on arrival.

In anticipation of another popular event, Trust Chairman John Greenslade said: "We hope that the evening will be as enjoyable as our first curry evening which was a huge success. The Masala are a proud corporate sponsor of the Trust and we look to reciprocate the support shown by our corporate sponsors whenever possible. We are always keen to welcome both members and non members of the Trust to all of our events and it would be great to see a mix of familiar and new faces again at The Masala".

City ride their luck to victory
WEYMOUTH 0 CAMBRIDGE CITY 3

Zamaretto Premier Division - Attendance: 506

THE OLD adage that when you are down your down certainly applied on Saturday as Zamaretto League Premier Division league leaders Cambridge City rode their luck to score three times from three opportunities, whilst rock bottom Weymouth struck the woodwork twice and feel that the visitors should have been reduced to ten men midway through the first-half.

The scoreline does not reflect the true course of the game but it is goals that count, and Weymouth will reflect on what might have been, whilst they still look for the first victory at the newly named Bob Lucas Stadium.

Weymouth included two former Chelsea youth players, central midfielder Rob Wolleaston and left winger Courtney Pitt after the pair signed non-contract terms on Friday, and whilst both acquitted themselves well, they could not prevent Weymouth going down to another defeat.

Weymouth dominated large parts of the game including the opening quarter and Pitt forced a save from Zac Barrett after he had cut inside Liam Nicell to get his shot away.

Weymouth felt City's skipper, the aptly named Adrian Cambridge, should have been dismissed for a foul on Jamie McGuinness after being booked earlier, but continued without censure, although he was substituted at the interval.

Cambridge failed to show the form that has seen them build a useful lead at the top of the table, but they still took the lead with their first effort on goal on 28 minutes when Craig Hammond converted Dave Theobald's flick on from Cambridge's long throw-in.

Cameron Mawer went close with a header from Pitt's free kick that cleared the bar, before the visitors doubled their lead seven minutes before the break.

Weymouth failed to clear Cambridge's corner and when the ball came to Lee Chaffey he lashed it past Tom Manley.

Not downhearted, Weymouth continued to take the game to Cambridge, and they were so unlucky not to reduce the arrears a minute before the break when Pitt cut inside before unleashing a left-foot shot that crashed against the upright with Barrett well beaten, before bouncing away from the inrushing Warren Byerley.

Weymouth came out after the break with all guns blazing and Pierre Joseph-Dubois forced a save from Barrett before the keeper failed to find a fierce shot from the dangerous Pitt. The ball ran to Jules Emati-Emati but he put the rebound wide.

To cap it all Mawer beat Barrett with a firm header from Pitt's free-kick only for it to bounce back off the post, before Hammond made a mockery of the score by adding a third when he nodded the ball over Manley from Robbie Nightingale's pass.

Clarke sees Bees through tough tie
BUCKLAND ATHLETIC 1 BRIDPORT 2

FA Vase Preliminary Round - Attendance 103

BRIDPORT produced an excellent performance to earn themselves a place in the first round of the FA Cup on Saturday when Chris Clarke headed the winner just seven minutes from time.

This was never going to be an easy tie. Buckland Athletic won the South-West Peninsula League Premier Division last season and have started this campaign in similar form, having won all seven league matches to date, scoring 30 goals and conceding just four in the process.

The Bucks were undefeated in 19 home matches last season and have already scored 23 in their four victories at Hormers Heath so far, and went into this match confident after having already defeated Toolstation Western League Premier side Radstock Town in the extra preliminary round of the FA Cup after a replay.

Bees manager Trevor Senior packed his midfield with Ryan Dovell the lone striker, as he looked to contain the free scoring Torbay side; and his plan worked to perfection.

With Sam Filkins unavailable due to a job interview, Senior drafted in Lee Cleal for his first game of the season and he turned out to be Bridport's man of the match with four excellent saves.

In a first half short of opportunities, Cleal saved bravely at the feet of striker Gavin Hammon before Chris Senior hooked a ball off the line that the home side were confident had crossed.

The Bees replied with a 25-yard shot from Darren Watts that fizzed by, and then Jamie Symes was unlucky with a shot that hit the side netting after working an opportunity for himself.

The game remained goalless until the 70th minute when Buckland scored in bizarre circumstances. The hosts were invited to return the ball after Bridport had put it out following an injury. Unfortunately Liam Moseley was too enthusiastic with his kick and it sailed over Cleal and into the top corner of the net.

In an act of sportsmanship, the host's step aside, akin to the situation between Yeovil Town and Plymouth Argyle six years ago, to allow Dovell to equalise unchallenged.

The Bucks could have taken the lead almost immediately but Cleal pulled off a magnificent save from Stuart Morgan's fiercely struck half volley.

Buckland had plenty of the ball but ran out of ideas in the final third where the Bees defence made it difficult for them including two more sparkling saves from Cleal, whilst at the other end Dovell had a good chance.

Jamie Symes then shot over on the angle whilst Watts shot narrowly wide.

Clarke won this second qualifying tie when he met Dan Wise's corner on 83 minutes to glance his header wide of keeper Neil Montandon to earn an away tie at Odd Down on October 2nd.

Forbes: Keep our feet on the ground
MILBORNE SPORTS 1 BRIDPORT 3rd 4

BRIDPORT joint player/ manager Jason Forbes had a word of warning for his players after they completed their third win of the season to top Dorset League Division Two with a comprehensive victory over Milborne Sports.

The hosts are expected to be one of the top teams this season, and the Bees went to North Dorset expecting a tough game, but ran out relatively easy winners.

Central defender Forbes told View Sport: "I think they saw themselves as one of the teams to beat, but we played exceptionally well in the first-half to lead 3-0 at the interval, and although they had a spell of pressure early in the second-half, we completed a fairly comfortable win. That is their good wins we have had now, and this game was a good benchmark on where we are, but it is still early days and we need to keep our feet on the ground."

Gino Scovell gave them the lead on 15 minutes with a good header from 10 yards after good work down the left by Robin Jones before James Bird headed home Steve Batrick's corner at the far post midway through the half.

Tristan Gale was left with an easy tap-in to extend the Bees lead after a good run down the left again by Jones who then rounded the keeper to set Gale up from six yards.

Milborne came out after the break in more determined mood and put Bridport under pressure and got one back on the hour with a scrappy goal following a corner when the Bees defence failed to clear properly.

However Bridport threw on their three subs immediately and one of them Jake Williams sealed the victory with a fourth after good work by Bird who then pulled the ball back for Williams to score.

"We've got a very young side and it's early days, but they played very well and didn't let Milborne play their game," added Forbes.

◆ BRIDPORT Reserves suffered their fifth defeat in six games when they went down 4-0 to Westland Sports at St Mary's Field. After a bright start with two good victories, the Bees second string have disappointed.

Bridport U15
MILBORNE ST ANDREW 0 BRIDPORT 5

THE reformed Bridport U15s completed a comfortable 5-0 victory over Milborne St Andrew in their first league game of the new season after a season away.

An accomplished all round team display saw the young Bees take the lead after 15 minutes when debutant Jordan Daniels rounded the opposition goalkeeper to slot home confidently from a narrow angle.

Bridport were forced to make an early change when Tom Jones had to be withdrawn due to a thigh strain, but Calum Pattinson and Tom Shoemark came on and equipped themselves well in the right midfield role. Bridport doubled their lead on 25 minutes when Conal Judd-English's shot from an acute angle found the net after some quick precise passing between Sonnie Reynolds and captain Levi Gale.

Bridport dominated all aspects of the play during the first half and were rarely troubled defensively, but when called upon, new signings James Dudgeon, the pick of the defenders, and Dan Baggs equipped themselves excellently in their new roles.

Gale put the game out of Milborne's reach, when he coolly headed home a Reynolds pinpoint corner after a sustained period of pressure from the young Bridport side.

The second half continued in the same vein with Bridport dominating the game for long periods. The excellent Kiaran Mason was unlucky not to increase the young Bees' lead just after the restart, but the hard working midfielder saw his deft lob hit the crossbar and rebound to safety with the opposition keeper beaten.

Daniels completed his maiden Bridport hat-trick soon after, with a quick fire brace, beating the Milborne stopper confidently on both occasions with well taken finishes. Meanwhile the new strike partnership of the ever industrious Judd-English and Daniels gelled quickly.

Defensively in the second period Bridport were rarely troubled and the established centre back pairing of Ryan Gall and Tom McNamee mopped up any threat posed by the hosts with ease. Bridport stopper David Persey was never really tested during the game, but when called upon produced a confident display between the sticks.

Bridport 14 Weymouth Terras 1

BRIDPORT maintained their winning start to the with an emphatic 14-1 victory against a lacklustre Weymouth outfit.

The Young Bees pressurized their opponents from the kick-off and dominated play immediately, and opened the scoring when the impressive and determined left midfielder Jordan Daniels latched onto a loose ball in the heart of the Terras defence after fine work from man of the match Conal Judd-English.

Inspired and unselfish passing proved to be the key to unlocking the Terras defence a further five times in the first half, with Kiaran Mason collecting a brace and the Daniels firing a personal first-half tally of four.

The second-half saw the Terras come out with extra determination and drive giving the Bridport more competition in the early stages of the half, but it took less than ten minutes for them to find their rich goal scoring vein once more. Mason's powerful shot from just inside the penalty box completed his first Bridport hat-trick, before Daniels took his tally to six, with goals from captain Sonnie Reynolds, Ryan Gall, and substitutes Will Miller, with two, and Charlie Miller completing the rout.

The Terras notched up their consolation goal in the final minute.

Corfe Mullen United 0 Bridport U 11 5

They took the lead with a fine Thomas Hyde strike quickly followed by Jamie Herbert's fine solo run and low, hard strike that doubled the score.

Harry Kilcoin and Harry Kirby added further goals before halftime to see Bridport 4-0 up at the break.

The second-half saw Bridport miss a host of opportunities, before Kirby produced a brilliant goal line clearance as they became complacent. However with man-of-the-match Callum Middleton having his best performance for a while in midfield, the visitors took control and Jake Rowland added a fifth with a powerful shot.

Middleton came close on several occasions before the end of a very good Bridport display.

Yeovil too strong for Beaminster

Beaminster Ladies Hockey
YEOVIL 4 BEAMINSTER 0

WITH two of their most experienced players having to share goalkeeping duties, Beaminster were always going to be under pressure against a strong Yeovil side.

Skipper Ali White donned the pads in the first half in which Beaminster defended well, and with Julia May commanding in the striker role they restricted the home side to a series of short corners, none of which were converted.

Beaminster fought hard with some strong tackling, good interceptions and the odd foray down the flanks.

May took over from White in goal at halftime requiring some positional changes, and although Beaminster fought hard Yeovil finally found space. Harriet Hughes, a new player to the ranks this term was named player of the match for her high fitness level and good work on the wing, whilst another newcomer Emma Drury was strong in midfield. Yeovil finally broke a determined Beaminster to score four in the second half, the last one the whistle a lucky one that flattered the scoreline.

Back to basics pays dividends

A RELIEVED Phil Simkin told how Dorchester Town returned to basics in order to find the elusive win that had seen his side slump to the bottom of the Blue Square Bet South league.

The Magpies finally triumphed at the ninth time of asking when they beat fellow strugglers Boreham Wood 3-1 at The Avenue on Saturday.

The assistant manager said that a return to the basics of keeping their shape and discipline when they didn't have the ball had been the telling factor in their win.

"The Ebbsfleet match, although a spectacle for the neutral, was a nightmare for both benches with either side almost encouraging each other to attack them, so during the week we worked on the basics of keeping our shape and discipline particularly when we didn't have the ball.

"It wasn't as pretty, we played well, nothing out of the ordinary, but everyone did their jobs well. We were more organised, compact and played as a unit.

"At the end of the day this is a results game, and there was tremendous pressure on us to get a result, which we did. I thought we thoroughly deserved to win.

BY STUART BROOM

"I thought it was an obvious penalty, and was glad that the ref gave it, as we have had eight clear penalties turned down so far this season. Giuseppe's penalty was spot on and Ryan's free kicks were cracking efforts.

"They are not a bad side and did have a lot of possession at times, but it was in areas that didn't hurt us. We also had that little bit of luck that has been missing this season, but I thought our discipline and work rate was great and finally killed them off."

Simkin was full of praise for his wide players Danny Ings and Nick Crittenden.

"Both did a superb defensive job when required. It's not a natural role for Critts and something he had to learn, whilst Danny would never have had to play that way before at Bournemouth, so it was something new for him, but both did a brilliant job."

He was also full of praise for Scott Guyett who joined the club recently and was named club captain in place of the departing Kevin Hill.

"Scott was absolutely outstanding. He is in great physical condition for his age and can also play football. I'm amazed, but delighted that he has signed for us, he is a great acquisition and he will make Nathan Walker into an excellent player alongside him."

Looking forward to Saturday's FA Cup second qualifying round tie at Mangotsfield he said: "It is a potential banana skin. They are not a bad side and have a compact little ground on the slope. However it's amazing how much a win has raised the lad's confidence."

The Magpies have no injury worries following last Saturday's match which means that Gary Bowles who has returned from a long term injury will be in the squad again. However there is a doubt whether Newport County want Sole cup-tied and they are still awaiting permission from AFC Bournemouth for Danny Ings. The tie is worth £4500 to the winning team.
